

Social Anthropologies of the Welsh: Past and Present

Day 1: Wednesday 1 May

18:00 Chair: Professor Emeritus W. John Morgan

Welcome address: Professor Ian Rees Jones, (Director, WISERD), Professor David Boucher (Vice President, LSW), Professor Emeritus Prys Morgan (President, HSC), Dr. David Shankland (Director, RAI)

18.30-19.30

Keynote Lecture: Professor Dame Marilyn Strathern: FBA and Honorary Fellow, Learned Society of Wales (University of Cambridge)

'The Language of Relationship: Anthropology's commitment to comparison'

19.30-20.30 Wine Reception

---

Day 2: Thursday 2 May

09.00-09.25 Registration and coffee

09.25-09.30 Welcome: Professor Emeritus Professor W. John Morgan

Morning Session: Past

09.30-10. 00: Gerald of Wales: Medieval Ethnographer of the Welsh

10.00-10.30: 'Wales in Miniature': Iorwerth C. Peate and the development of the Welsh Folk Museum

10. 30-11.00: William Jones (1746-94), Welsh orientalist and ethno-musicologist

11.00-11.20 Tea and coffee

11.20-11. 50: Anthropological perspectives on religious belief in Wales

11.50-12.20: The Welsh in diaspora: Patagonia

12.20-12.50: Community Studies and Twentieth Century Social Change: perspectives on Welsh society

12.50-13.30 Buffet Lunch

Afternoon Session: Present - Contemporary Community Studies

14.20-15.10: Becoming involved: Biography and community in two north east Wales villages

14:00-14:30 Learning Welsh to become.....welsh?

14.30-15.00: Virtual diasporas? Revisiting the role of migrants' online groups and communities in Wales

15.00-15.30: Labour, Love and Welfare on a South Wales Housing Estate

15:30-15:50 Tea and coffee

15.50-16.50

Endnote Lecture: Professor Chris Hann, Director, Max Planck Institute of Social Anthropology, Halle, Germany

'Class and Community in Industrial and Post-industrial South Wales'

16:50-17.00

Close of Symposium