

Welsh Labour Market Summit: Debating interventions to match skills and jobs

Friday 18th September 2015 – 9.45am-3.30pm

G23 Lecture Theatre (Ground Floor), Thoday Building (Deiniol Road), Bangor University

- 9.15-9.45 Coffee/Tea
- 9.45-10.00 Introduction and Welcome
- 10.00-10.30 Iwan Thomas (North Wales Economic Ambition Board): NWEAB as a Labour Market Intermediary for North Wales
- 10.30-11.00 Dylan Williams (Anglesey County Council Economic Development Unit): The Anglesey policy context
- 11.00-11.15 Coffee/Tea break
- 11.15-11.45 Tony Dobbins and Alexandra Plows (Bangor University): Anticipatory responses to redundancy in the Welsh nuclear power industry
- 11.45-12.15 Open debate on key themes
- 12.15-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00-13.30 Rhys Davies (Cardiff University, Wiserd): Evaluating the effects of redundancy-related training interventions in Wales
- 13.30-14.00 Hannah Blythyn (Unite): The trade union labour market perspective
- 14.00-14.30 Iestyn Davies (Federation of Small Businesses): Skills, Grounded Firms within the Foundational Economy
- 14.30-15.00 Ewart Keep (Oxford University, SKOPE)
- 15.00-15.30 Open debate on key themes
- 15.30 Close