As an independent charity it has 482 members from across Wales. Its aim is to support and represent the interests of its members and the wider voluntary sector, through lobbying, representation, increasing funding and providing a range of services such as training and funding advice.

WCVA has twenty-three staff based at its three offices in Caerphilly, Welshpool and Llandudno.

Chair's foreword

That was the year that was, with the three Cs of celebration, change and challenge.

Celebration, that WCVA had safely reached its 60th, and that its place in Welsh life is widely acknowledged. The extension of our Caerphilly headquarters and development of broader services on all fronts are both evidence of increased confidence.

Change came to the pattern of services in the community; it affected us all and will increase. WCVA has tried to be sensitive to the needs and aspirations of the sector, while being youthful in adapting to them.

Challenge followed close behind: how to make sure that people in Wales recognise WCVA as part of its social and cultural life - not an optional extra, but as a lively, relevant and effective promoter of people's understanding of, and involvement in, this decade's complex environment.

My thanks to everyone - members, staff and friends who have joined in these endeavours, during this special diamond jubilee year.

Director's report

This year marks the end of one era and the start of another. The roles that Welsh Office, local and health authorities, and other quangos have played over the last ten years are being rearranged.

The shape of the new order is now established, but it will be some years before the full impact on voluntary organisations will be clear.

Change of this magnitude causes anxiety and concern. WCVA has been in the forefront in ensuring that the voluntary sector is on the new agenda and in setting out a realistic vision of the future, in its Towards Shared Aims and Partners in Health initiatives.

In another development, a new era is just beginning with the launch during the year of the National Lottery. This will provide a valuable new source of funds for voluntary organisations, but some will lose out as giving is diverted. Again WCVA has led the way in lobbying, informing, researching and assisting this new initiative to ensure that voluntary organisations in Wales get the best possible deal and in calling for compensation for those who lose most. Another theme of the year has been recognising the role of the volunteer and, again, WCVA has been active through its trustee training programmes and in developing its own volunteering strategy in Wales, which will implement the work of the government's Make A Difference team.

During the year WCVA has strived to provide stable strategic leadership and be the clear and respected voice of voluntary groups and volunteering in Wales. Such a voice is of crucial importance during a period of uncertainty and change. It has strengthened this voice and will continue to do so, by increasing contact with its voluntary membership, extending its media coverage and awareness, and enhancing its contact with decision makers at all levels.

WCVA's work would not be possible without the support of its growing voluntary membership, those who give their time freely to its activities, and the many trusts and government agencies who have contributed to its resources.

Thank you.

Looking back over 60 years of success

WCVA in ... The Thirties

The mass unemployment of the early thirties set the scene for the launch of the South Wales and Monmouthshire Council of Social Service in February 1934 – eventually to become the Wales Council for Voluntary Action (WCVA).

The focus of its work was supporting the occupational centres and clubs for unemployed men then springing up across the valleys, with the impressive aim of "coordinating the work of all existing agencies contributing to the cultural and occupational, physical and recreational needs of the adult and adolescent population of South Wales."

(Annual report 1934-5)

This included work on health (a nurse cost £100 a year), valleys' libraries, cooperative schemes to dig mountain coal and even women's 'keep fit' classes.

The Fifties

By the early fifties the Council's activities were manifold and various, including help for the elderly, and the young, adult education, community centres and village halls, even music and drama – all said to "encourage and coordinate social effort in town and country".

The emphasis on the countryside became stronger as the Council also tackled rural issues, working with Rural Community Councils on "the central problem of rural Wales today – the problem of depopulation". (Annual report 1952)

The decade also saw the decline of the Men's Clubs for the unemployed – but conversely Women's Clubs flourished, with some 110 clubs "serviced by five full-time handicraft and two home craft instructresses". (Annual report 1959-60)

The Forties

"One of the important effects of the war, with its multiplication of rules and regulations has been the increase of personal problems and

Sworis to which there is no ready answer ..." (Annual report 1940)

As well as other war work, a government grant allowed the Council to help set up seventy Citizens Advice Bureaux in the region to tackle some of the problems referred to above.

Hard on the heels of peace came the welfare state, but the concern that state provision could "stifle voluntary action" proved unfounded, as the sector branched out in new directions. In 1946 the Council extended its remit to the whole of Wales and was increasingly involved in everything from refugees to craft work.

The Sixties

Sixty years ago the council was concentrating more than ever on the elderly, appointing its first full-time officer to deal with the administration of the "Committee for the Care of the Elderly in Wales" which it had overseen since 1947. This body went on eventually to become Age Concern Wales.

Work with community centres, youth work, drama, CAB and women continued. There was a special Women's Department working on such issues as women's rights, pensions, social security benefits and community care – as well as one resolution on "the use of public money with regard to 'Hippies' and 'Flower people'".

The Seventies

The seventies brought change to the council's structure. Various committees became independent, emerging as the Wales Council for the Disabled, the National Council for the Elderly in Wales (Age Concern Wales) and Council for Wales Voluntary Youth Services.

The Council redefined its future role and for the first time appointed non-specialist officers to "liaise generally with the voluntary movement in North and South Wales". The shift also included launching a series of adult literacy and training initiatives, both for the young and the older unemployed.

THE EIGHTIES

In 1982 the name Wales Council for Voluntary Action replaced the Council of Social Service for Wales, reflecting the commitment to "promote, support and facilitate voluntary action and community development in Wales." New information, publications, media and community development initiatives were launched. WCVA also started administering the Volunteering in Wales Fund.

Work to support Welsh charities grew to include training and funding advice as well as specific projects such as 'Take Care', aimed at improving the quality of life for the poor and elderly. The Council also began research to monitor the effects of local and central government policy changes on the voluntary sector.

THE NINETIES

WCVA now has 482 member groups and individuals from all over Wales and all walks of voluntary life. One in three people in Wales volunteer and the sector manages an annual income of around £600m.

The future presents fresh challenges such as the contract culture, community care and the national lottery and on these and other issues WCVA aims to champion the cause of the voluntary sector, lobbying on its behalf and helping create partnerships with statutory and private sectors.

Still based in Caerphilly, the Council has opened Mid Wales and North Wales offices and is implementing a bilingual policy. Work is pressing ahead on funding, training and promoting voluntary groups, at Welsh, European and UK levels, to forge a strong, independent Welsh voluntary sector.

The Year in Focus

1994/5 saw Wales Council for Voluntary Action (WCVA) celebrating its own diamond jubilee and increasing its representational role in many areas most obviously on the national lottery.

The following report details the key areas of concern to Welsh charities and voluntary groups over the year as identified by WCVA members, and the action taken on them.

It also offers a review of the regular services we provided to the Welsh voluntary sector.

National Lottery

The second half of the financial year was dominated by the National Lottery and its effect on charities' funding.

WCVA performed a vital representational role - aiming to:

- Facilitate communication between the National Lottery Charities Board (NLCB) and the voluntary sector;
- provide information to groups on all five 'good cause' funds;
- research the effect of the Lottery on charitable giving and
- explain to the public via the media the real effect of the Lottery on charities.

Research commissioned by WCVA, with the National Council of Voluntary Organisations in February revealed that many people think charities are benefiting far more from the lottery than is the case and that some would buy lottery tickets instead of giving to charity. In November WCVA held a briefing day for the sector on all five funds.

WCVA's national development officer was seconded to the NLCB and WCVA organised five consultation events across Wales on behalf of the Board. These allowed the Board to consult with charities on its draft guidelines for funding voluntary groups.

In frequent media interviews WCVA stressed that 1/4p to 11/2p

would come to Welsh charities per pound lottery ticket - and urged people to carry on supporting local groups.

WCVA has also made two bids to the Lottery's Millennium Fund for:

- a multi-point video conference facility for Wales and a UK support for village halls - in conjunction with Acre and sister organisations in Scotland and Northern Ireland.

The Lottery draw hosted by Anthea Turner and Gordon Kennedy has proved irresistible viewing for many. WCVA used the media to explain to the public the real effect of the Lottery on charities.

Local government support and reorganisation

Despite something of a 'calm before the storm' atmosphere in advance of reorganisation in 1996, WCVA pressed on energetically in two areas:

- Increasing support for and partnership with the voluntary sector and local government.
- Encouraging groups to get together in the new twenty-two unitary authority areas and work with transition committees on the arrangements for future funding of voluntary groups, and their part in delivery of services. As a result contact has been established between virtually all transition committees and the voluntary sector.

WCVA also provided advice to transition committees on working with the sector and has started a 'tracking exercise' to follow groups' fortunes through the reorganisation process.

It also published several key publications:

Finding the Funding: Local Authority funding for voluntary organisations Wales 1992/3 survey - found local authority support had gone up to £21.7m but still lagged behind its English equivalent.

Local Government Reorganisation and the Voluntary Sector - an update and Working Together in Wales - a revised edition of the summary Towards Shared Aims - a blueprint for local authorities and voluntary sector working together which is supported by WCVA, The Council of Welsh Districts, the Assembly of Welsh Counties, The Welsh Office and the Local Government Management Board. This will be sent to the new shadow authority members.

As a result one quarter of new authorities have, or have committed themselves to the Towards Shared Aims model and a further quarter are interested.

Volunteering

The restoration of the Welsh Office cut in grant aid enabled WCVA to appoint a full-time volunteering officer who has begun to develop a Wales strategy for volunteering to implement the work of the UK Make A Difference Initiative. Wales is represented on the initiative by WCVA's Chair, Marjorie Dykins.

The Underdogs, a voluntary group of more than forty young people from St Mellons, Cardiff, perform at community events and festivals.

This group is supported by Community Music Wales and was featured in WCVA's Network Wales magazine.

Central government

The year began under the shadow of a ten per cent funding cut in the Welsh Office grant to WCVA and the Volunteering in Wales Fund (see p8). But following vigorous representations to the Welsh Office, both cuts were restored.

Meetings with Welsh Office and Westminster ministers and officials were also held on a wide range of subjects from a volunteering strategy to European funding, the lottery and the transfer of social and community grants from the Welsh Office and quangos to local councils.

WCVA also published Have They Listened - a review of the government's implementation of its efficiency scrutiny which found that some progress had been made in the administration and efficiency of grant schemes.

Europe

1994 was a year of important change in European funding programmes and WCVA kept the sector informed of the rapidly changing scene. The programmes for industrial south Wales and rural Wales were approved after much delay and thanks to WCVA's lobbying contained specific measures to fund community development. WCVA also gained representation as the sector's voice on the new streamlined committees in these regions.

Negotiations with our sister councils in Scotland and England led to the Objective 3 ESF programme for training unemployed people being fully devolved. Wide consultation preceded a new application process tailored to Welsh organisations and the targeting of need. Over £4m of bids were received and forty different organisations were recommended for funding.

A voluntary sector response was made to the European Commission's consultation on social policy. The European team also underwent some personnel changes with the appointment of a new ESF Officer in Caerphilly and Administrator in Welshpool. The team dealt with over 400 enquiries for information on funding, networks and lobbying during the year.

Welsh language

Providing services in Welsh will become increasingly important as expectations rise through the Welsh Language Act, while organisations contracted to provide services for local councils may find it mandatory to offer a bilingual service.

To help voluntary groups in this area WCVA appointed a Welsh language development officer, funded by the Welsh Language Board. He is setting up a project to work with twenty groups on producing Welsh language policies, and will also develop draft guidelines for the voluntary sector on Welsh language policies.

Two consultation days were held with the sector and North and South Wales panels will meet soon to look at good practice.

The second annual Voluntary Action Pavilion at the National Eisteddfod, this year in Glynneath, housed seventeen voluntary groups and promoted the sector's work in Wales. Organised by WCVA and Disability Wales the Pavilion was opened by Rhodri Morgan MP and hosted a series of events by groups such as the WI, Carers National Association and Children in Wales.

Health

WCVA research revealed that for every £1 given in grants to a voluntary group by the Health Service in Wales, £7.50 is gained in fundraising by the voluntary sector for the Health Service.

In conjunction with the Welsh Health Authorities, WCVA published Partners in Health - a publication aimed at showing how the changes to the health service make it more important than ever that health authorities and voluntary groups work in partnership to provide health care. Partners in Health was launched at a working conference and both the guide and summary have been widely distributed in Wales and beyond, and some health authorities have already begun to implement its recommendations.

Trust funding

Following on from WCVA's Building Bridges event - when twenty-eight UK trusts met representatives of the Welsh voluntary sector in Cardiff a new group of UK-based charitable foundations met in London as the Welsh Interest Group of the Association of Charitable Foundations to look at ways of increasing knowledge and contact with Welsh voluntary groups. WCVA estimates only 1% of the money coming to Welsh groups is from trusts, and now the 'Welsh Interest Group' of the Association of Charitable Foundations is looking at changing the balance. WCVA has also renewed efforts to set up a trust fund specifically for Welsh groups - a steering group has been set up to look into the issue. As a result some Charitable Foundations are reviewing their policies and this may increase the level of support to charities in Wales.

Advice services

WCVA launched a report Independent Advice Services in Wales, in a bid to increase strategic support and funding for this vital but neglected area of work. The report was published in conjunction with Citizens' Advice Bureaux, Shelter, the Cardiff Law Centre, community advice agencies and county voluntary councils throughout Wales.

Such services provide independent advice on issues such as debt, benefits, or legal matters to more than half a million people in Wales every year, but often rely on insecure funding from short term, variable grants.

Solutions offered include a joint policy with central and local government to ensure a minimum level of security funded services across Wales.

Social care

WCVA's report on Community Care - is it working? gained widespread media coverage and was discussed with Directors of social services across Wales. Since then WCVA has continued to support a network of groups involved in social care. It has also provided training on development work in the field between national groups and county voluntary councils - plus completed a protocol on co-operation and joint working between these two groups of interests.

WCVA has also developed a pilot project with the Welsh Office to recruit people from the wider community as 'lay assessors' to inspect local authority social services.

WCVA's policy officer was seconded to the Welsh Office to review the Flexible Community Care grant scheme.

Future of the sector

Debate throughout the year has concentrated on the nature and future of the charity and voluntary sectors and WCVA has launched its own pragmatic approach to this.

A steering group of voluntary sector representatives has started to draft a manifesto on the future of the voluntary sector in Wales, asking what do groups in Wales have to say about themselves and what do they want from a future government. Widespread consultation is planned.

The uncertainty about the shape and size of the sector is also likely to be lessened following a successful bid by WCVA and its sister organisations to carry out research in the sector for the Central Statistical Office.

Services

Advice

WCVA's advice services again concentrated mainly on funding, including European funding and the National Lottery. More than three hundred general funding queries were dealt with, and many more on European funding.

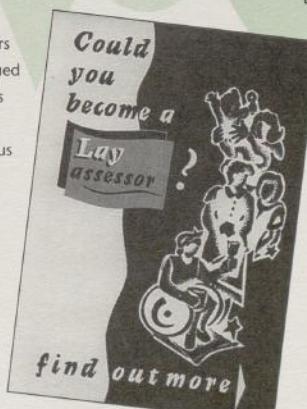

WCVA's funding advice was backed up with detailed research on sources of voluntary sector funding as indicated below.

More than one hundred queries on legal issues were also dealt with.

WCVA also facilitated a network of local authority licensing officers to advise on charity fraud, and also highlighted this issue in the media.

Wales' estimated 22,000 voluntary groups had a total income of around £600m in 1992/3, according to figures in a new WCVA publication, Funding Facts, launched at its AGM Funding the Future.

Of this some sixty per cent came from voluntary donations - from individuals, legacies, companies and trusts, while forty per cent came from public sources, central and local government, quangos, health authorities and Europe. For the future the National Lottery and local government reorganisation will both deeply affect traditional funding patterns.

Training

WCVA provides a training and consultancy service plus a full events programme, as well as facilitating voluntary sector events for other organisations.

The training programme includes day courses across Wales and short residential courses run by experienced trainers on subjects such as European funding, staff development and charity law.

WCVA's national trustee training programme, aimed at reaching Wales' thousands of trustees, was launched at the National Eisteddfod and ran successfully throughout the autumn and winter.

Funding has been agreed with Charity Projects and three Training and Enterprise Councils (TECs) for a North, Mid and West Wales training consortium to meet the needs of smaller, rural voluntary groups, and European match-funding is being sought.

Other major events run during the year included: WCVA's diamond jubilee fashion show, lottery consultation, the Charities Aid Foundation Welsh link conference, free fundraising training with the Templeton Institute, WCVA's AGM funding for the future and a conference facilitated on behalf of Welsh historic monuments agency CADW.

WCVA also co-ordinated the Training Support Network, disseminated information on National Vocational Qualifications, and represented Wales in discussions about an Industry Training Organisation for the sector.

Information

WCVA's monthly magazine Network Wales was relaunched with a brand new design and contents style in January 1995. It is designed in house and produced to a high standard. Network aims to provide the latest news and views on the voluntary sector in Wales and both circulation and advertising have risen. The bilingual bi-monthly newsletter supplement was again produced to target for seven county voluntary councils, as were weekly issues of WCVA's news or 'current awareness' service plus updated information sheets.

Sixteen publications were produced, fourteen bilingually, and a WCVA housestyle was introduced. Publications were marketed, distributed free or sold and exhibition material also produced.

Thirty-five press releases were produced and media coverage rose again, with a particularly good coverage of National Lottery subjects.

WCVA's library and information service was maintained and 1,167 queries answered on all aspects of voluntary activity.

Internal efficiency

WCVA brought in new membership categories and charges as well as updating its constitution - membership continued to increase.

Research was initiated on its communication with members and corporate image, and a review of information technology carried out and approved.

A personnel handbook and a health and safety policy were also drawn up and approved.

Volunteering in Wales Fund and the Esme Fairbairn Charitable Trust

47 voluntary groups shared grants ranging from a few hundred to nearly £20,000, from the Volunteering in Wales Fund (VIWF). These grants funded new opportunities for over 1,600 volunteers.

A Welsh Office decision to cut the scheme's funding by 10% was subsequently reversed and by the end of the year £268,769 had been awarded to groups across Wales.

WCVA also administers small grants on behalf of the Esme Fairbairn Charitable Trust. 54 awards were made to voluntary groups in 1994/95, totalling £27,397.

Diamond Jubilee Celebrations

Diamond anniversary lunch

Stylish off-the-peg numbers for as little as £3.50 put the sparkle into WCVA's diamond jubilee celebrations at Cardiff City Hall in June 1994.

The catwalk 'clothes show' was styled from the shops of nine charities operating in Wales.

And it was the highlight of a sixtieth birthday party which also featured guest speaker Roy Noble, a buffet lunch and awards from the Volunteering in Wales Fund.

The show was ably compered by Radio Wales celebrity Frank Hennessy.

The event coincided with UK Volunteers' Week and aimed to highlight the work of the thousands of volunteers in Wales who contribute to so many aspects of Welsh life. It also marked sixty years of WCVA's contribution to the volunteering world, which has changed dramatically in response to changing times, starting with its work with South Wales valleys men's clubs in the depression years of the thirties.

As well as providing great entertainment, the show also stressed the size, depth and quality of the charity shop "industry" in Wales which raises millions of pounds every year.

Jubilee reception

Hosted by the Lord Mayor of Cardiff Councillor Ricky Ormonde and Lady Mayorette Valerie Swinburne, Cardiff's Mansion House was the sumptuous setting for WCVA's diamond jubilee reception in March 1995.

Mid Glamorgan County Council's chief executive Huw Thomas, and Roger Jarman, Welsh Office Under Secretary, paid tribute to staff and committee members and acknowledged the role and vitality of the voluntary sector in the 1990's.

Rhagair y cadeirydd

Dyna i chi flwyddyn i'w chofio - blwyddyn o ddathliadau, newidiadau a sialensau.

Dathlu fod CGGC wedi cyrraedd ei 60fed penblwydd, a bod ganddo le cydnabyddedig ym mywyd Cymru. Bu estyn ein prif swyddfa yng Nghaerfili a datblygu gwasanaethau ehangach ym mhob maes yn arwydd o hyder y mudiad.

Bu newid ym mhatriwm y gwasanaethau i'r gymuned; caffod hyn effaith ar bob un o honom ac mae mwya o newidiadau i ddod. Mae CGGC wedi ceisio bod yn sensitif i anghenion a dyheadau'r sector, tra'n bod yn ddigon hyblyg i addasu iddynt.

Dilynnodd y sialensau yn dynn ar sodlau'r newidiadau: sut i wneud yn siwr fod pobl Cymru'n cydnabod CGGC fel rhwng o'u bywyd cymdeithasol a diwylliannol - nid fel rhywbech ymholi ond fel mudiad bywiog, perthnasol ac effeithiol sy'n hybu dealltwriaeth pobl o amgylchedd cymhleth y degawd hwn, a'u cynorthwyo i gymryd rhan ynddo.

Hoffwn ddiolch yn fawr i bawb - yn aelodau, staff a chyfeillion a ymunodd â ni yn yr ymdrechion hyn, yn ystod blwyddyn arbennig dathlu'n jiwbili diamwnt.

Marjorie Dykins

Marjorie Dykins

Adroddiad y cyfarwyddwr

Bu'r flwyddyn yn ddiweddu un cyfnod a dechrau cyfnod newydd. Mae'r rôl y bu'r Swyddfa Gymreig, awdurdodau lleol ac iechyd a chwangos eraill yn ei chwarae dros y deng mlynedd diwethaf wrthi'n cael ei had-drefnu.

Mae'r drefn newydd wedi'i sefydlu erbyn hyn, ond ni ddaw ei heffaith lawn ar fudiadau gwirfoddol yn eglur am rai blynyddoedd i ddod.

Mae newid mor eang â hyn yn achosi pryder a gofid. Bu CGGC yn flaenllaw yn y gwaith o sicrhau fod y sector wirfoddol ar agenda'r drefn newydd ac o greu gweledigaeth realistig o'r dyfodol, trwy gyfrwng ei fentrau Anelu at Amcanion Cyffredin a Partneriaid mewn Iechyd.

Mewn datblygiad arall, mae cyfnod newydd ar fin cychwyn yn sgil lansio'r Loteri Cenedlaethol yn gynharach yn y flwyddyn. Bydd hyn yn ffynhonnell arian newydd ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol, ond bydd rhai yn colli allan wrth i bob newid eu ffod o roi i elusennau.

Unwaith eto mae CGGC yn arwain y ffordd trwy lobio, darparu gwybodaeth, ymchwilio a chynorthwyo'r fenter newydd hon er mwyn sicrhau bod mudiadau gwirfoddol yng Nghymru'n cael y fargen orau bosibl. Bu ar flaen y gad hefyd o ran galw am iawndal i'r rhai fydd yn colli fwyaf.

Thema arall yn ystod y flwyddyn fu cydnabod rôl y gwirfoddolwr ac, unwaith eto, mae CGGC wedi bod yn weithgar gyda'i raglen hyfforddi ymddiriedolwyr. Mae hefyd wedi datblygu'i strategaeth gwirfoddoli ei hun yng Nghymru, a fydd yn gweithredu syniadau tim Make a Difference y llywodraeth.

Yn ystod y flwyddyn mae CGGC wedi ceisio rhoi arweiniad strategol cryf, a siarad ar ran grwpiau gwirfoddol a gwirfoddolwyr yng Nghymru gyda llais clir ac uchel ei barch. Mae'r llais hwn yn hanfodol bwysig mewn cyfnod o ansicrywya a newid. Mae CGGC yn cryfhau'r llais hwnnw, a bydd yn parhau i wneud hynny trwy gryfau ei gysylltiadau gyda'i aelodau, sicrhau mwya o sylw yn cyfryngau, cynyddu ymwybyddiaeth o'i waith ac ehangu ei gysylltiadau gyda'r rhai sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau ar bob lefel.

Ni fyddai gwaith CGGC yn bosibl heb gymorth ei nifer cynyddol o aelodau, sy'n rhoi eu hamser i gynnal y gweithgareddau yn rhad ac am ddim a'r nifer o ymddiriedolaethau ac asiantaethau'r llywodraeth sydd wedi cyfrannu at ei adnoddau.

Diolch yn fawr.

Y Tridegau

Gosododd diweithdra arfthrol y tridegau cynnar y seiliau ar gyfer lansiad Cyngor

Gwasanaeth Cymdeithasol De

Cymru a Mynwy ym mis Chwefror 1934 –

a ddaeth yn ddiweddarach yn Gyngor

Gweithredu Gwirfoddol Cymru (CGGC).

Ffocws y gwaith oedd cynorthwyo'r canolfannau a'r clybiau galwedigaethol i ddynion diwaith a oedd yn ymddangos ar hyd a lled y cymoedd ar yr adeg honno. Eu nod uchelgeisiol oedd

"cydgysylltu gwaith yr holl asiantaethau presennol sy'n cyfrannu tuag at anghenion diwylliannol, gyrafaol, corfforol a hamdden oedolion a phobl ifanc De Cymru." (Adroddiad blynnyddol 1934-5)

Roedd hyn yn cynnwys gwaith ym meysydd iechyd (roedd nyr yn costio £100 y flwyddyn), llyfrgelloedd y cymoedd, cynlluniau cydweithredol i dyrchu glo mynydd a hyd yn oed dosbarthiadau 'cadw'n heini' i fenywod.

Y Pedwardegau

"Un o effeithiau pwysig y rhyfel, gyda'i fyrrd rheolaus a rheoliadau, fu'r cynnydd mewn problemau a phryderon personol nad oes ateb parod iddynt..."

(Adroddiad blynnyddol 1940)

Ynghyd a gwaith arall yn ymwnheid a'r rhyfel, sefydloedd y Cyngor saith deg o Canolfannau Cyngor yn yr ardal, gyda chymorth grant gan y llywodraeth, i gynorthwyo i ddelio a'r problemau y cyfeirwyd atynt uchod.

Dilynnodd y wladwriaeth les yn dynn ar sodlau heddwch, ac roedd rhai yn pryderu y byddai darpariaeth gan y wladwriaeth yn "mygu gweithgaredd gwirfoddol". Ond diflannodd yr ofn hwn wrth i'r sector ehangu i gyeiriadau newydd. Ym 1946 ehangodd y Cyngor ei waith i gynnwys Cymru gyfan a dechreuodd ymwnheid ffywfy ym mhopheth o floadurion i waith crefftaw.

Y Pumdegau

Erbyn dechrau'r pumdegau roedd gweithgareddau'r Cyngor yn amrywiol dros ben, gan gynnwys cymorth i'r henoed a'r ifainc, addysg i oedolion, canolfannau cymunedol a neuaddau pentref, a hyd yn oed cerddoriaeth a drama. Ac roedd y rhain i gyd yn "annog a chydgyssylltu ymdrechion cymdeithasol yn y dref a chefn gwlad".

Rhoddydwyd mwya o bwylais ar gefn gwlad wrth i'r Cyngor ddechrau ymdrin a materion y gymuned wledig, gan weithio gyda Chyngorion Cymuned Gwledig ar "broblem ganolog cefn gwlad Cymru heddlu - problem diboblogi". adroddiad blynnyddol 1952.

Gwelwyd dirywiad Clybiau'r Dyonion ar gyfer y diwaith yn ystod y degawd hwn - ond roedd Clybiau'r Menywod yn ffynnu, ar y llaw arall, gydag oddeutu 110 ohonynt "yn cael eu gwasanaethu gan bum hyffordwraig gwaith llaw a dwy hyffordwraig crefftaw cartref llawn amser".

(Adroddiad blynnyddol 1959-60)

Y Chwedgegau

Yn ystod 'degawd yr ifainc'

AU roedd y Cyngor yn canolbwyntio fwyfwy ar yr henoed, gan benodi ei swyddog llawn amser cyntaf i ddelio gyda gweinyddiaeth

"Pwyllgor Gofal yr Henoed yng Nghymru". Bu'r Cyngor yn goruchwilio gwaith y pwyllgor hwn ers 1947. Yn ddiweddarach daeth y corff hwn yn Gyngor yr Henoed.

Parhaodd y gwaith gyda chanolfannau cymuned, yr ifainc, drama, Canolfannau Cyngori a menywod. Roedd gan y Cyngor Adran y Menywod yn delio a materion megis hawliau menywod, pensiynau, budd-daliadau nawdd cymdeithasol, a gofal cymunedol - yn ogystal ag un penderfyniad ar "ddefnydd arian cyhoeddus mewn perthynas a 'Hippies' a 'phobl y Blodau'".

(Adroddiad blynnyddol 1968-69)

Y Saithdegau

Bu newidiadau yn strwythur y Cyngor yn ystod y saithdegau. Daeth nifer o bwyllgorau'n annibynnol, gan ailymddangos fel

Cyngor yr Anabl yng

Nghymru, Cyngor

Cenedlaethol yr Henoed yng Nghymru (Cyngor yr Henoed), a Chyngor Gwasanaethau Gwirfoddol yr Ifainc yng Nghymru.

Ailddiffiniad y Cyngor ei rôl ar gyfer y dfodol ac am y tro cyntaf penododd swyddigion nad oedd ynt yn rhai arbenigol i "gydgylltu'n gyffredinol gyda'r mudiadau gwirfoddol yng Ngogledd a De Cymru".

Arweiniodd y newid hefyd at lansio cyfres o fentrau llythrennedd a hyfforddiant, i bobl ifanc diwaith yn ogystal ag i'r rhai hŷn.

YR WYTHDEGAU

Ym 1982 dechreuwyd defnyddio'r enw Cyngor Gweithredu Gwirfoddol Cymru yn lle Cyngor Gwasanaethau

Cymdeithasol Cymru, gan adlewyrchu'r ymrywymiad i "hybu, cynorthwyo a hwyluso gwaith gwirfoddol a datblygiad cymunedol yng Nghymru". Lansiwyd gwybodaeth a chyhoeddiadau newydd, a mentrau cyhoeddusrwydd a datblygu cymunedol. Dechreudd CCGC hefyd weinyddu'r Gronfa Gwaith Gwirfoddol yng Nghymru.

Gwnaethwyd mwy o waith i gefnogi elusennau yng Nghymru, gan gynnwys rhoi cyngor ar hyfforddiant a chyllido yn ogystal a chymorth gyda phrosiectau penodol megis 'Cymerwch Ofal', wedi'i anelu at wella safon byw y tlawd a'r henoed. Dechreudd y Cyngor hefyd wneud gwaith ymchwil i fonitro effeithiau polisiau'r llywodraeth leol a chenedlaethol ar y sector gwirfoddol.

Y NAWDEGAU

Mae 470 o grwpiau ac unigolion ledled Cymru o bob rhan o fywyd gwirfoddol yn aelodau o CCGC erbyn hyn. Mae un o bob tri o bobl yn gwneud gwaith gwirfoddol erbyn hyn ac mae'r sector yn llwydd i weithredu ar incwm blynnyddol o £500m.

Mae'r dyfodol yn cynnig sawl sialens newydd megis y diwylliant contractio, gofal yn y gymuned a'r Loteri Cenedlaethol. Bwriad CCGC, o ran y rhain a materion eraill, yw cefnogi achos y sector gwirfoddol, gan lobio ar ei rhan a chynorthwyo i greu partneriaethau gyda'r sectorau statudol a phrifat.

Er fod prif swyddfa'r Cyngor yng Nghaerffili o hyd, mae wedi agor swyddfeydd eraill yn y Canolbarth a Gogledd Cymru ac mae'n gweithredu polisi ddwyieithog. Mae'r gwaith o gyllido, hyfforddi a hybu grwpiau gwirfoddol ar lefel Cymru, Ewrop a Phrydain yn parhau er mwyn adeiladu sector gwirfoddol gref ac annibynnol yng Nghymru.

Y Flwyddyn mewn Ffocws

Roedd Cyngor Gweithredu Gwirfoddol

Cymru (CGGC) yn dathlu'i benblwydd yn chwe deg ac yn gwneud mwy o waith cynrychioli mewn nifer o feysydd, yn arbennig y loteri cenedlaethol.

Mae'r adroddiad canlynol yn rhoi manylion y meysydd allweddol a achosodd bryder i elusennau a grwpiau gwirfoddol Cymru dros y flwyddyn ddiwethaf, ac yn nodi pa gamau a gymerwyd.

Mae hefyd yn adolygu'r gwasanaethau rheolaidd a ddarparwyd i'r sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru.

Loteri Cenedlaethol

Y Loteri Cenedlaethol a'i effaith ar yr aran y mae elusennau yn ei dderbyn oedd prif destun ail hanner y flwyddyn ariannol.

Chwaraeodd CGGC rôl hanfodol yn cynrychioli'r elusennau - gan geisio:

- Hwyluso'r cyfarthrebu rhwng Bwrdd Elusennau'r Loteri Cenedlaethol (NLCB) a'r sector gwirfoddol;
- darparu gwybodaeth i grwpiau am y pum cronfa 'achos da';
- ymchwilio i effaith y Loteri ar faint mae pobl yn ei roi i elusennau; ac egluro gwir effaith y Loteri ar elusennau i'r cyhoedd trwy'r cyfrngau.

Dangosodd gwaith ymchwi a gomislynwyd gan CGGC.

Chyngor Cenedlaethol

June Churchman (chwith) a Linda Quinn - aelodau o bwyllgor Bwrdd Elusennau Cymru - gyda Tom Jones.

Mudiadau Gwirfoddol ym mis

Chwefror fod llawer o bobl yn credu fod elusennau'n elwa llawer mwy o'r loteri nag yr oedd ynt mewn gwirionedd, a bod rhai yn prynu tocynnau loteri yn hytrach na rhoi i elusen.

Ym mis Tachwedd cynhaliodd CGGC ddiwrnod gwybodaeth ar gyfer y sector ar y pum cronfa.

Cafoedd swyddog datblygu cenedlaethol CGGC ei secondeio i Fwrrd Elusennau'r Loteri Cenedlaethol a threfnodd CGGC bum diwrnod o ymgynghori ledled Cymru ar ran y Bwrdd. Bu hyn yn foddi i'r Bwrdd ymgynghori gydag elusennau ar ei ganllawiau draftol ar gyfer ariannu grwpiau gwirfoddol.

Mewn nifer o gyfweliadau gyda'r cyfrngau pwysleisiodd CGGC y ffraeth mai rhwng 1c ac 11c o bob tocym loteri punt fyddai'n dod i elusennau Cymru - ac anogodd bobl i barhau i gefnogi grwpiau lleol.

Mae CGGC hefyd wedi gweud daw gais i Gronfa Mileniwm y Loteri ar gyfer

• cyfeuster fideo-gynadleddau aml-bwynt i Gymru a chymorth i neuaddau pentref Prydain - ar y cyd gydag Acre a'i chwaerludiadau yn yr Alban a Goigledd Iwerdon.

Bu'r rhaglen Loteri a gyflwynwyd gan Anthea Turner a Gordon Kennedy yn boblogaidd iawn gyda'r gwybodaeth. Trwy'r cyfnodau, eglurodd CGGC i'r cyhoedd gwir effaith y Loteri ar elusennau.

Cefnogaeth llywodraeth leol, a'r ad-drefnu

Er gwaetha'r ymdeimlad o dawelwch cyn storm yr ad-drefnu ym 1996, aeth CCGC ymlaen a'i waith yn egniol mewn dau faes:

- Sicrhau mwy o gymorth i'r sector wifoddol a phartneriaeth well rhwngddi a llywodraeth leol.
- Annog grwpiau i ddod at ei gilydd yn ardaloedd y daur ar hagain o awdurdodau unedol newydd a gweithio gyda'r pwylgorau trosglwyddo ar y trefniadau ar gyfer ariannu grwpiau gwifoddol yn y dyfodol ac ar eu cyfraniad at ddarparu'r gwasanaethau. O ganlyniad mae cysylltiad wedi'i sefydlu rhwng y sector wifoddol a bron pob un o'r pwylgorau trosglwyddo.

Darparodd CCGC gyngor i bwyllgorau trosglwyddo hefyd ar weithio gyda'r sector wifoddol, a chychwynnodd 'ymarfer tracio' i ddilyn hynt a helynt y grwpiau trwy gydol y broses o ad-drefnu.

Cyhoeddwyd sawl dogfen allwedol yn ogystal:

Cael Hyd i'r Cyllid: Arolwg 1992/3 ar ariannu gan awdurdodau lleol i fudiadau gwifoddol Cymru - gwelwyd fod y cymorth a dderbynir trwy law awdurdodau lleol wedi codi i £21.7 miliwn ond ei fod yn parhau i fod yn is na'r swm cyfatebol yn Lloegr.

Ad-drefnu Llywodraeth Leol a'r Sector Wifoddol - diweddariad a Gweithio Gyda'n Gilydd yng Nghymru - diweddariad o'r crynodeb, Anelu at Amcanion Cyffredin - canllaw ar gyfer cydweithredu rhwng awdurdodau lleol a'r sector wifoddol - a baratowyd gan CCGC, Cyngor Dosbarthau Cymru, Cynulliad Siroedd Cymru, y Swyddfa Gymreig a Bwrdd Rheoli Llywodraeth Leol. Caiff hwn ei anfon at aelodau'r awdurdodau cysgodol newydd.

O ganlyniad, mae chwarter yr awdurdodau newydd wedi ymrwymo i ddilyn model Anelu at Amcanion Cyffredin, ac mae chwarter arall wedi mynegi diddordeb ynddo.

Gwifoddoli

Yn sgil adfer grant y Swyddfa Gymreig, aeth CCGC yn ei flaen i benodi swyddog gwifoddoli llawn-amser sydd wedi cychwyn erbyn hyn ar y gwaith o ddatblygu strategaeth gwifoddoli ar gyfer Cymru i weithredu argymhellion menter Make a Difference. Cadeirydd CCGC, Marjorie Dykins, sy'n cynrychioli Cymru yn y fenter.

Mae 'The Underdogs', grŵp gwifoddol o bobl llanç o St Mellons, Caerdydd, a ymddangosodd yn Rhwydwaith Cymru, yn perfformio mewn digwyddiadau cymunedol a gwyliau. Cefnogir y grŵp gan Cerdoriaeth Gymunedol Cymru

Y Llywodraeth ganol

Cychwynnodd y flwyddyn dan gysgod toriad o ddeg y cant yng ngrantiau'r Swyddfa Gymreig i CCGC a'r Gronfa Wifoddoli yng Nghymru (gweler tud.8). Ond yn dilyn ymgyrchu brwd gyda'r Swyddfa Gymreig, fe adnewyddwyd y ddau grant.

Cynhalwyd cyfarfodydd gyda gweinidogion a swyddogion y Swyddfa Gymreig a San Steffan ar amrywiaeth eang o bynciau o strategaeth gwifoddoli i arian gan Ewrop; o'r loteri i drosglwyddo grantiau cymdeithasol a chymunedol o'r Swyddfa Gymreig ac o'r cwangos i'r cinghorau lleol.

Cyhoeddodd CCGC Ydyn Nhwn Gwrando - arolwg o sut mae'r llywodraeth wedi gweithredu ei astudiaeth o effeithiolrwydd. Dangosodd y bu gwelliant yng ngweinyddiad ac effeithiolrwydd cynlluniau grantiau.

Ewrop

Bu 1994 yn flwyddyn o newidiadau pwysig yn y rhaglenni ariannu Europeaidd a rhoddodd CGGC wybodaeth i'r sector am y datblygiadau. Cymeradwywyd y rhaglenni ar gyfer ardaloedd diwydiannol o Cymru a'r ardaloedd gwledig wedi cryn oedi, a diolch i lobio gan CGGC roedd ynta yn cynnwys mesurau penodol i ariannu datblygu cymunedol. Bu CGGC hefyd yn cynrychioli'r sector ar y pwylgorau newydd meinach yn y rhanbarthau hyn.

Yn dilyn trafodaethau gyda'n chwaer-gyngorau yn yr Alban a Lloegr, caffodd rhaglen Amcan 3 Cronfa Gymdeithasol Ewrop ar gyfer hyfforddi pobl ddiwraith ei datganoli'n llwyr. Cafwyd ymgynghori eang cyn trefnu proses ymgeisio newydd wedi'i chynllunio ar gyfer mudiadau Cymreig ac ar gyfer targedu anghenion. Derbyniwyd ceisiadau gwerth dros £4 miliwn ac argymhellwyd y dylid rhoi arian i bedwar deg o fudiadau gwahanol.

Rhoddodd y sector wirfoddol ei hymateb i raglen ymgynghori'r Comisiwn Europeaidd ar bolisi cymdeithasol. Bu rhai newidiadau yn staff y tim Europeaidd hefyd a phenodwyd Swyddog Cronfa Gymdeithasol Ewrop newydd yng Nghaerffili a Swyddog Gweinyddol newydd yn y Trallwng. Deliodd y tim a dros 400 o ymholiadau ar ariannu, rhwydweithiau a lobio yn ystod y flwyddyn.

Yr Iaith Gymraeg

Bydd darparu gwasanaethau yn y Gymraeg yn dod yn fwyfwy pwysig wrth i ddisgwyliadau gynyddu yn sgil y Ddeddf laith. Fe allai mudiadau sy'n cael eu contractio i ddarparu gwasanaethau ar gyfer cyngorau lleol weld ei bod yn orfodol arnynt i gynnig gwasanaeth dwyieithog.

Er mwyn cynorthwyo grwpiau gwirfoddol yn y maes hwn mae CGGC wedi penodi Swyddog Datblygu'r iaith Gymraeg, gyda chymorth ariannol gan Fwrdd yr iaith. Mae wrthi'n sefydlu prosiect i weithio gydag ugain o grwpiau i ddarparu polisiau iaith. Bydd hefyd yn paratoi canllawiau drafft ar bolisiau iaith ar gyfer y sector wirfoddol.

Cynhalwyd dau ddiwrnod ymgynghori gyda'r sector a bydd paneli Gogledd a De Cymru'n cyfarfod yn fuan i edrych ar arferion da.

Bu'r ail Bafiliwn Gweithredu Gwirfoddol blynnyddol yn yr Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yng Nglyn-nedd, a oedd yn cynnwys dau ar bymtheg o grwpiau gwirfoddol, yn hyrwyddo gwaith y sector yng Nghymru. Agorwyd y Bafiliwn, a drefnwyd gan CGGC a Chyngor Cymru i'r Anabl, gan Rhodri Morgan AS, a threfnwyd cyfres o ddigwyddiadau gan grwpiau fel Sefydliad y Merched, Cymdeithas Genedlaethol y Cynhalwyr a Phlant yng Nghymru.

Iechyd

Dangosodd gwaith ymchwil CGGC fod y Gwasanaeth Iechyd yn derbyn £7.50 o gyllid gan y sector wirfoddol am bob £1 y mae'n ei roi fel grantiau i grwpiau gwirfoddol.

Cyhoeddodd CGGC Partneriaid mewn lechyd ar y cyd gydag Awdurdodau Iechyd Cymru - gyda'r nod o ddangos sut mae'r newidiadau i'r gwasanaeth iechyd yn ei gwneud yn bwysicach fyfth fod awdurdodau iechyd a grwpiau gwirfoddol yn cydweithio i ddarparu gofal iechyd. Lansiwyd Partneriaid mewn lechyd mewn cynhadledd waith a dosbarthwyd y canllaw a'r crynodeb ledled Cymru a thu hwnt. Mae rhai awdurdodau iechyd eisoes wedi dechrau gweithredu'i argymhellion.

Cyllid ymddiriedolaethau

Yn dilyn y gynhadledd Codi Pontydd a gynhallwyd gan CGGC - pan gyfarfu wyth ar hugain o ymddiriedolaethau Prydeinig â chynrychiolwyr y sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru yng Nghaerdydd, trefnwyd cyfarfod o grŵp newydd o elusennau Prydeinig yn Llundain o dan yr enw Grŵp Buddiannau Cymreig Cymdeithas y Sefydliadau Elusennol er mwyn edrych ar ffyrdd o ledaenu gwybodaeth am grwpiau gwirfoddol Cymru a chynhyddu'r cysylltiad â hwy.

Mae CGGC yn amcangyfrif mai 1% yn unig o'r arian a dderbynir gan grwpiau Cymreig sy'n dod o goffrâu ymddiriedolaethau ac mae 'Grŵp Buddiannau Cymreig' Cymdeithas y Sefydliadau Elusennol yn ceisio newid y sefydlla. Mae CGGC hefyd wedi aili gychwyn yr ymdrech i sefydlu cronfa ymddiriedolaeth yn arbennig ar gyfer grwpiau Cymreig - sefydlywyd grŵp llywio i edrych i'r mater. O ganlyniad mae rhai Sefydliadau Elusennol yn adolygu eu polisiau, a gallai hyn gynyddu lefel y cymorth a roddir i elusennau yng Nghymru.

Gwasanaethau cyngor

Lansiad CGGC adroddiad o'r enw Gwasanaethau Cyngori Annibynol yng Nghymru mewn ymgais i gynyddu'r cymorth strategol a'r arian a roddir i'r maes hanfodol hwn sydd yn aml yn cael ei anwybyddu. Cyhoeddwyd yr adroddiad ar y cyd gyda'r Canolfannau Cyngori, Shelter, Canolfan Gyfreithiol Caerdydd, Asiantaethau Cyngori cymunedol a chynghorau gwirfoddol sirol ledled Cymru.

Mae gwasanaethau o'r fath yn darparu cyngor annibynol ar faterion megis dyledion, budd-daliadau a materion cyfreithiol i dros hanner miliwn o bobl yng Nghymru bob blwyddyn, ond maent yn aml yn dibynnu ar ansicrywydd grantiau tymor byr, amrywiol.

Mae'r atebion a gynigiwyd i'r broblem yn cynnwys polisi ar y cyd gyda llywodraeth ganol a lleol fydd yn sicrhau fod lefel benodedig o wasanaethau ledled Cymru'n derbyn arian sicr.

Gofal cymdeithasol

Cafodd adroddiad CGGC Gofal Cymdeithasol - A Yw'n Gweithio? grym sylw gan y cyfrangau a bu'n destun trafod ymhliedol cyfarwyddwyr gwasanaethau cymdeithasol ledled Cymru. Ers hynny mae CGGC wedi parhau i roi cymorth i rwydwaith o grwpiau sy'n ymneud â gofal cymdeithasol. Mae wedi darparu hyfforddiant ar waith datblygu yn y maes hwn rhwng grwpiau cenedlaethol a chynghorau gwirfoddol sirol. Mae hefyd wedi cwblhau canllawiau ar gydweithredu a chydweithio rhwng y ddau grŵp.

Mae CGGC hefyd wedi datblygu prosiect peilot gyda'r Swyddfa Gymreig i reciwtio pobl o'r gymuned ehangach fel 'aseswyr lleyg' i archwilio gwasanaethau cymdeithasol yr awdurdodau lleol.

Cafodd Swyddog Polisi CGGC ei secondio i'r Swyddfa Gymreig i adolygu'r cynllun grant Gofal Cymunedol Hyblyg.

Dyfodol y sector

Bu llawer o draffod yn ystod y flwyddyn ar natur a dyfodol y sectorau elusennol a gwirfoddol ac mae CGGC wedi lansi ei agwedd bragmataidd ei hun at hyn.

Mae grŵp llywio o gynrychiolwyr y sector gwirfoddol wedi cychwyn paratoi manifesto drafft ar ddyfodol y sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru, gan ofyn beth sydd gan grwpiau Cymru i'w ddweud amdanynt eu hunain, a beth maent am ei gael gan llywodraeth y dyfodol. Bwrdir cynnal nifer o gyfarfoddyd ymgyngħori.

Mae'n debgol y bydd llai o ansicrywydd yngħiġlixi siap a maint y sector yn sgil llwyddiant cais CGGC a'i chwaer-fudiadau i gynnal gwaith ymchwil i'r sector ar ran y Swyddfa Ystadegol Ganolog.

Gwasanaethau Cyngor

Canolbwytiodd gwasanaethau cyngori CGGC unwaith eto ar ariannu, gan gynnwys arian gan Ewrop a'r Loteri Cenedlaethol. Deliwyd a rhagor na thrï chant o ymholiadau cyffredinol am ariannu a llawer mwyn am arian gan Ewrop.

Caiff cyngor CGGC ar ariannu ei gefnogi gan waith ymchwil manwl ar ffynonellau arian ar gyfer y sector gwirfoddol, fel a nodir yn yr adrannau eraill. Ymdrinwyd â thros gant o ymholiadau ar faterion cyfreithiol hefyd.

Rhododd CGGC gymorth i rwydwaith o

Yn ôl y ffigyrâu mewn cyhoeddad newydd gan CGGC, Ffeithiau Ariannu, a lansiwyd yn y Cyfarfod Cyffredinol Blynnyddol Cyllido'r Dyfodol, derbyniodd y 22,000 o grwpiau gwirfoddol yr amcangyfrifri sy'n bodoli yng Nghymru gyfanswm o oddeutu £600 miliwn mewn incwm ym 1992/93.

Daeth oddeutu chwe deg y cant o hwn o raddion gwirfoddol - gan uniglion, cwmniau ac ymddiriedolaethau, neu raddion mewn ewyllysiau - tra bod pedwar deg y cant wedi dod o ffynonellau cyhoeddus, llywodraeth ganol a lleol, cwangoz, awdurdodau ieched y Ewrop. Bydd y Loteri Cenedlaethol ac ad-drefn llywodraeth leol yn cael effaith ddofn ar batrymau ariannu traddodiadol.

swyddogion trwyddedu awdurdodau lleol sy'n rhoi cyngor ar dwyll mewn elusennau, yn ogystal a thynnu sylw at y mater yn y cyfrangau.

Hyfforddiant

Mae CGGC yn darparu gwasanaethau hyfforddi ac ymgynghori a rhaglen ddiwyddiadau lawn, yn ogystal â helpu trefnu diwyddiadau ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol eraill.

Mae'r rhaglen hyfforddini'n cynnwys cyrsiau un-dydd ledled Cymru a chrysiau preswyl byr dan ofal hyfforddwyr profiadol ar bynciau fel arian gan Ewrop, datblygu staff a chyfraith elusennau.

Lansiodd CGGC ei raglen genedlaethol ar gyfer hyfforddi ymddiriedolwyr, yn yr Eisteddfod Genedlaethol. Cafodd y rhaglen, a anelir at y miloedd o ymddiriedolwyr yng Nghymru, ei hedeg yn llwyddiannus trwy gydol yr hydref a'r gaeaf.
