Annual report

1995 - 1996

Wales Council for Voluntary Action is the voice of the voluntary sector in Wales.

It represents and campaigns for voluntary organisations and volunteers, including its members.

WCVA leads the sector in:

- Providing advice, information and training;
- lobbying decision-makers at all levels;
- safeguarding and increasing resources for the sector;
- responding positively to new challenges.

WCVA is an independent charity. It now has more than 500 members across the whole spectrum of voluntary and community groups - including social care and health, education and youth, the environment, arts and culture, and sport.

Its growing membership bears testimony to the central role it plays in representing and campaigning for the voluntary sector, and taking the lead in helping organisations to manage change.

WCVA has 33 staff based at its Caerphilly headquarters, and at offices in Llandudno and Welshpool.

Membership

WCVA is the umbrella body for voluntary organisations, volunteering and charities in Wales.

At a time when the sector is in a state of flux, joining WCVA can help voluntary organisations and those who work with them to keep pace with change.

On a practical level we have teams of specialists who can provide information, advice and training on a whole range of issues directly relevant to organisations in the sector.

Our funding team gives comprehensive advice on money available in the UK and Europe.

Through a series of information sheets, newsletters and our current awareness service, our policy and development officers ensure that members are kept up to date with changes in legislation affecting the voluntary sector.

Members also receive a free copy of Network Wales, the leading monthly magazine for the sector in Wales. They are also entitled to reductions on training sessions and new publications.

In addition, WCVA is active at a strategic level - promoting volunteering, rural issues and bilingual policies, as well as working to establish links with local authorities, health authorities and the business sector.

If you are not a member and would like to join, we will be happy to send you an information pack.

Full membership is open to national, regional and umbrella voluntary organisations and any voluntary organisation not represented at these levels.

Each year full members elect the executive committee which guides the organisation.

Associate membership is open to local organisations, branches of national voluntary organisations, statutory and private agencies and individuals.

For further details and an information pack, please contact Wendy Gilbert at WCVA's head office at Llys Ifor, Crescent Road, Caerphilly CF83 1XL.

Director's report

The year covered by this report has seen the end of one era and the start of another, as the roles and structures of government have undergone massive change.

During this period of change, many organisations have suffered considerable dislocation and anxiety, as decisions affecting their future have been late or delayed. Survival itself has been a major priority, and much work remains to ensure that the work of charities is secure and enhanced within the new order.

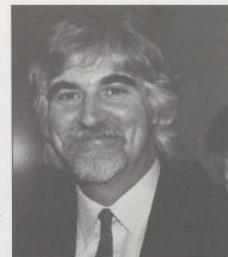

Changes in European funding, the publication of the Rural White Paper, the increasing flow of lottery funds, and the Make A Difference volunteering initiative, may create some opportunities for enhancing voluntary action, volunteering and community development.

Seizing such opportunities requires the voluntary sector to respond with quality, imaginative and accountable initiatives, not least to the emerging anti-poverty and Agenda 21 initiatives. It will also require effective support at both a local and a national level.

At a local level, the review of local intermediary voluntary support services, announced in January, will lead to a new role for WCVA as the funding channel, and to a re-structuring of local voluntary support services in each unitary authority area. At a national level, WCVA will continue to provide and improve its stable and strategic leadership as the clear and respected voice of the sector in Wales, and will review its own activities as it looks toward the millennium.

WCVA's work would not be possible without the support of its expanding voluntary membership, those who give their time freely to its activities, and the many trusts and government agencies, particularly the Welsh Office and the National Lottery Charities Board, who have provided financial backing during the year.

Graham Benfield

Chair's foreword

WCVA provides a voice for the voluntary sector in Wales on matters of common interest and represents those interests to government, other decision makers, and indeed to society as a whole.

With some 22,000 voluntary organisations in Wales, this could be a somewhat daunting task. WCVA's approach is firmly based on working with others, and we are constantly seeking to strengthen existing or establish new networks within the sector, and to develop stronger and more effective relations with others outside the sector.

This year, we have taken steps towards increasing the number of our members and improving communication with them. WCVA is committed to consulting widely, and A voluntary manifesto for Wales, for example, has been refined and redrafted following extensive debate and comment during the year.

Looking outside the sector, we have nurtured stronger links with decision makers at all levels and have developed successful relations with MPs from all parties and with the business community. We have looked beyond traditional boundaries and made connections with groups in Eastern Europe and agencies in Brussels and Eire. We have used the media too as an effective tool in raising awareness about the issues confronting voluntary organisations and volunteers today.

It has been a testing year for many involved in the sector with the uncertainty created by local government reorganisation. We must now look to the future. WCVA for its part is looking forward to working with the new Local Government Association for Wales and to developing links with the new health authorities.

May I thank all who have worked and collaborated with us this year and express my warmest appreciation to fellow executive members and staff for their contributions.

Marjorie Dykins OBE

Looking back

A whistle-stop tour of some significant developments.

These are changing times and almost everyone has been affected by the pace of change. WCVA has worked on behalf of voluntary organisations making sure their voice was heard and their interests represented at all levels.

Working in partnership with others, the organisation has facilitated initiatives that will benefit voluntary and community groups throughout Wales.

This is a very brief record of some WCVA landmarks passed in the 12 months from April 95 to March 96:

- A voluntary sector manifesto was produced and widely distributed.
- WCVA supported almost 200 organisations which attracted a total of £16 million in European funds for the voluntary and community sectors in Wales.
- The organisation co-ordinated a high profile campaign to put voluntary sector concerns on the agenda during local government reorganisation.
- WCVA campaigned for - and won - a fifteen per cent quota of Strategic Development Fund money for voluntary groups.
- WCVA submitted a multi-million pound bid to the Millennium Commission on behalf of groups in Wales for the regeneration of village and community halls.
- The Volunteering in Wales Fund, administered by WCVA, was increased by £160,000 as part of the Make A Difference initiative - the UK volunteering strategy.
- Good practice guidelines were prepared for voluntary groups wishing to adopt bilingual policies.
- The first conference for volunteer organisers in Wales was a huge success, with bookings exceeding space available.
- WCVA went live on the Internet with a bilingual World Wide Web page.
- Links were made with the emerging voluntary sector in central and eastern Europe.
- A voluntary sector training organisation development project is now up and running.

Tavernspite village hall: If WCVA's bid to the Millennium Commission gets the go-ahead, many halls in rural communities could benefit from similar renovations.

- An anti-poverty development project was started with lottery funding.
- A comprehensive survey of the support needs of voluntary organisations was undertaken.

Signposting the way to the future

Towards the Millennium

WCVA has a number of projects planned for the current financial year. Many build on work already started in 1995, and others are breaking new ground.

The following maps out the work staff are undertaking in 1996/97 although it by no means covers the full scope and range of projects planned.

- A media research project which aims to break down the stereotypical images of volunteering.
- Two projects to determine how volunteering can benefit older and younger people.
- A steering group of WCVA and others is drawing up good practice guidelines for volunteers in support of carers.
- Research on the extent to which NVQs are being used by volunteers.
- Seminars in North and South Wales to introduce voluntary organisations to Investors in People and the Management Charter Initiative.
- Early work looking at national standards for the sector will gather pace in 1996/97.
- WCVA will target MPs and MEPs to raise voluntary sector issues at Wales and UK levels.

- A support network is planned for organisations planning to use the WCVA guide to develop bilingual policies.
- A pilot project for anti-poverty development work is being set up in three unitary authority areas.
- Work will also be undertaken to assist voluntary and community groups access Strategic Development Scheme funding.
- A core curriculum for community work training will be developed.
- A research project will monitor local government funding for the voluntary sector following the switch to unitary authorities.
- WCVA is aiming to work with support services to build on standards of service.
- Work with unitary authority licensing officers is planned to tackle some issues relating to fraudulent charitable fundraising.
- WCVA will challenge funders to look to more imaginative and flexible schemes to benefit the sector.
- The European team will work to protect and improve the sector's take-up of European funding.

The dominant themes ...

The dawning of a new era in local government

Local government reorganisation has been a worry in the background for several years, but as the months wore on it came to the fore as the dominant theme for 1995/96.

The reorganisation of health authorities into five larger authorities has been another force for change.

In addition, the Welsh Office proposals to devolve money used to fund national umbrella bodies for voluntary organisations and certain grant schemes, could pose a further threat to a number of organisations.

During the run-up period WCVA worked steadily to ensure voluntary organisations were prepared for the changes.

It promoted the good working practices set out in Towards shared aims with local authorities to persuade them about the necessity of including voluntary organisations in their strategic planning.

This year the workload increased dramatically as the demise of the old local authorities and reorganisation of health authorities came ever closer and the new era dawned.

From the onset, WCVA warned voluntary groups that they needed to check and respond to the draft service delivery plans for their own area.

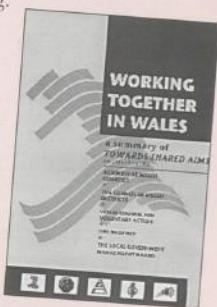

WCVA obtained copies of all 22 unitary authority service delivery plans and highlighted its concerns to each of the chief executives. Many service delivery plans neglected even to mention the voluntary sector which reflected on their lack of awareness of the vital role played by voluntary organisations.

Other service delivery plans had general statements about the voluntary sector but did not back them up with any substance.

In early 1996 WCVA published - Local government reorganisation - the final stage with a countdown timetable and checklist for voluntary organisations.

It also continued a tracking exercise with a cross section of voluntary organisations to get a snapshot picture of how local government reorganisation was affecting them.

The main picture in early 1996, right through to April, was one of chaos, as a result of not knowing what would happen to funding.

The uncertainty turned to growing frustration and panic as the deadline date for reorganisation neared. With just three weeks to go before the handover date, one out of three voluntary groups in a sample of 30 did not know what their funding would be.

This picture was mirrored by the experiences of NACAB, Age Concern and other voluntary organisations.

Organisations with scant reserves were forced to issue redundancy notices to staff.

WCVA ran a high-profile press campaign urging local authorities to:

- Agree transitional funding for voluntary groups until the unitary authorities could sort themselves out;
 - agree funding arrangements for voluntary organisations whose work crosses local authority boundaries;
 - establish proper consultation procedures with voluntary organisations to prevent a reoccurrence of the crisis the following year.

The fallout from local government reorganisation is still being monitored, but there are some tentative signs that relationships are being rebuilt.

Some authorities have responded by adopting the good practice outlined in Towards shared aims. The seeds are being sown for the development of a mature relationship in which the voluntary sector is recognised as a stakeholder in society and will be consulted in a meaningful way on strategic issues.

WCVA is also continuing to monitor Welsh Office proposals to devolve Government money to local authorities to gauge what impact it will have on national umbrella bodies and grants administration.

The dominant themes ...

The lottery one year on

WCVA has continued to keep a watchful eye on the impact of the National Lottery on the voluntary sector.

In 1995/96 it commissioned National Opinion Polls, through NCVO, to conduct research into the amount of money individuals were giving to charity following the introduction of the National Lottery. The research also gauged people's perceptions of the lottery to see how the amount they thought was being given to charity equated with what was actually reaching the voluntary sector's coffers.

The results showed a nose-dive in charitable giving after the introduction of the lottery. About fifteen per cent fewer individuals surveyed said they gave to charity, and those who continued to give, contributed less. Charity raffles and street collections were particularly hard hit.

WCVA estimates that charities in Wales have lost approximately £15 million; this is expected to be matched by donations from the NLCB. But the charities that have lost income are not the same ones, necessarily, to have been awarded grants.

The lottery had been widely promoted as providing new money for good causes and this clearly has not happened.

In addition to commissioning its own research, WCVA is representing Welsh voluntary groups on the steering committee for Home Office funded research.

This research is being carried out over two years and it will concentrate on income for charities over a longer-term period: Three years prior to the introduction of the lottery and three years after its introduction.

The project will gather evidence directly from charities and will look in detail at a sample of larger charitable organisations, as well as a representative sample of thousands of smaller organisations.

Reorganisation threatens voluntary groups' funds

If they fail to move quickly, voluntary services on which many people depend, could fold because they have little money.

Many deserving projects throughout Wales have received funds for lottery projects. However, the silver lining has a cloud. The lottery has not generated the new money that it promised, and smaller charities are believed to be suffering with raffles and street collections particularly hit.

WCVA has also given evidence to the National Heritage Committee lottery inquiry. In its submission, WCVA argued that:

- Wales should have a greater say in how money is distributed by the boards.
- There should be more flexible ways of financing lottery projects through endowment funding so that projects would have long-term secure funding, instead of relying on one-off grants.
- The lottery tax of twelve pence in the pound - the highest in Europe - should be reduced and the additional money distributed to good causes.
- A cross co-ordinating forum should be set up to deal with grant applications which cross boundaries.
- All lottery boards in Wales should be accountable in Wales.

The Welsh Pre-School Playgroups Association was awarded a £424,000 lottery grant over three years. The money will fund a comprehensive day-care project in Gibbonsdown, Barry, which will include day-care provision, after school care, community liaison initiatives and childcare development.

The dominant themes

Europe and the East

- 600 enquiries dealt with over the year
- 70 advice surgeries held
- 9 WCVA training events on Europe
- 20 workshops/presentations to other organisations

It was a highly successful year in terms of winning European grants for the sector. The funding programmes for rural Wales (objective 5b) and for South Wales (objective 2) finally came on stream almost a year late.

As a result there was a huge increase in resources coming into the sector amounting to some £14 million - up from £3.5 million the previous year. The grants have benefited 150 organisations.

WCVA also set up a channel for Welsh voluntary sector applicants to the European Social Fund. More than 40 projects were given grant aid totalling more than £2 million. More than half the projects winning support were from first-time applicants.

In addition to the practical support given to grant-seekers, WCVA has been influential in the design of programmes to improve voluntary sector access to funds.

We have also lobbied extensively on delays in approval and payment of European funding. WCVA has estimated that on one programme alone 355 training places were lost and three redundancies were caused by these difficulties.

WCVA assisted the National Trust secure £190,000 European funding under the new agri-environmental grants to set up a training project in environmental conservation and forestry. The project provided training places for 70 unemployed trainees on Colby Lodge Estate, near Tenby; Stackpole estate in Pembrokeshire and Dolaucothi estate near Lampeter. Almost half the trainees found jobs following the programme.

Links with the East

WCVA has been broadening its horizons and looking to ways it can link up with the emerging voluntary sector in Central and Eastern Europe.

Links have now been built with the voluntary sector in Belarus and opportunities for co-operation and exchanges between Belarus and Wales have been created.

WCVA's mission ...

Providing advice, information and training

Advice

Our staff dealt with 2,525 requests for advice and information during the year - 1,000 queries more than had been anticipated. The subjects included funding, legal, constitutional, and personnel matters.

Information

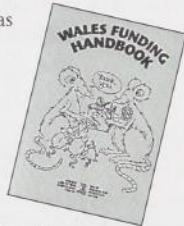

WCVA's current awareness service, which provides a weekly digest of new developments affecting the sector, attracted an increase in subscribers this year.

Circulation of Network Wales - the sector's flagship monthly magazine - also increased as the numbers of members grew.

Information sheets and briefing papers were produced on health authority reorganisation, local government reorganisation, contacts for the new local authorities, the strategic development scheme and Welsh-based trusts and local authority support for the voluntary sector.

The major publication of the year was the Wales Funding Handbook

95/96 which sold very well following its launch in September, and is well on the way to meet or exceed its sale target for the year.

- WCVA dealt with 2,500 requests for advice and information.
- Thirty training days were delivered.
- Tailor-made in-house training for organisations occupied 22 days.
- 80 per cent of participants rated the training received as very satisfactory.

Training

WCVA staff delivered a variety of training events from personnel to equal opportunities, use of the media, health and safety, and management development.

In addition, the organisation has adopted a strategic and enabling role.

Since October 1995, it has facilitated a voluntary sector training organisation project. This brings together a representative cross-section of the sector and aims to analyse the training and development needs of the sector and ensure that they are being met.

Our mission ...

Campaigning and lobbying

WCVA is regarded as the voice of the voluntary sector in Wales. Campaigning and lobbying decision-makers at Wales and UK level on behalf of voluntary organisations and on volunteering issues is a crucial part of its role.

During the year we:

- Lobbied to reverse a decision which would have meant the voluntary sector was not represented on the RECHAR Technical Group that oversees European funding - and won.
- Lobbied to ensure that the Welsh Office guidelines on the Strategic Development Scheme included a clause obliging local authorities to spend 15 per cent of their allocation on voluntary community projects - and won.
- Lobbied with others to scrap proposals to revise benefit rules which would have affected unemployed people on voluntary sector training courses funded by the European Social Fund (ESF) and won.
- Made submissions to Government in support of volunteering on the regulations for the new jobseeker's allowance - and won some concessions.

Gabalfa Community Workshop is now well established but it has experienced cashflow difficulties while waiting for ESF funding to be processed.

Barry Shiers, workshop manager, says: "It seems remarkable that projects are expected to function efficiently and professionally whilst having to wait six months or more into the financial year before receiving 50 per cent of the grant."

"I would hope that WCVA will continue to campaign on behalf of small charities throughout Wales to improve and educate the system to the needs of small, often vulnerable organisations".

Our Mission ...

Responding positively to new challenges

Rural initiative

WCVA has invested in a £100,000 three-year project to support community initiatives in rural areas.

In the past year, WCVA has established the Rural Network as a support group for voluntary organisations, and has been researching their main concerns and interests.

A conference was held in Llandrindod Wells for representatives of voluntary and community groups to collate views on what should be included in a rural White Paper for Wales.

In February, a conference was held in Llandrindod Wells in conjunction with Wales Community Transport Consultative Group. The conference resulted in a decision to establish a national community transport association for Wales.

Anti-poverty project

A successful bid to the National Lotteries Charities Board enabled WCVA to set up an anti-poverty project.

Its aim is to develop relationships between community groups and local authorities to ensure community groups become full partners in anti-poverty strategies.

WCVA's anti-poverty development officer will liaise with the National Local Government Forum Against Poverty and with local authorities. Three pilot areas will be selected to take the project forward.

The community development officer is working with support organisations for community groups and looking at training needs.

WCVA's Volunteering in Wales Fund made awards of £450,000 and a loan to Dyfed Wildlife Trust to help it pay for volunteers' expenses and equipment in the clean-up operation after the Sea Empress oil spill.

Welsh language

Phase one of the Welsh language project involving 19 pilot organisations in developing bilingual policies was completed during the year. Good practice panels have been established to help organisations learn from others' experiences. Guidelines, As good as our words, were produced, and a newsletter has been mailed regularly to more than 3,000 organisations.

A voluntary sector liaison panel was set up with the Welsh Language Board.

WCVA has begun to draw up its own Welsh Language Scheme in response to the Welsh Language Act and in tune with As good as our words.

Volunteering

WCVA is appointing two additional workers to help promote and take forward many of the volunteering initiatives begun this year.

A high profile Volunteers Week resulted in an upsurge in enquiries and increased initiatives for the following year.

Wales Volunteering Forum was strengthened to 200 members, and held a series of training events for volunteer organisers, as well as planning a second annual conference.

Volunteering in Wales Fund and the Esmee Fairbairn Trust

Applications to the Volunteering in Wales Fund increased by 19 per cent in the year with a total of 110 applications being made. The amount of money requested topped the million pound mark - up from £853,000 to £1,100,000. Awards of more than £450,000 were committed and a loan was also made to Dyfed Wildlife Trust to help them pay for volunteers' expenses and equipment in the clean-up operation after the Sea Empress oil spill.

Last year the Welsh small grants committee of the Esmee Fairbairn Charitable Trust had £30,000 to distribute. The panel met four times during the year, considered 141 applications and made 101 awards. The amounts ranged from £100 to £600, with 22 awards going to north Wales and 15 to mid Wales.

Training consortia

Fifty-two courses were run for the north, mid and west Wales training consortium, on topics including management committee skills, finance, working with volunteers and working in a bilingual society.

Promoting the sector

WCVA successfully co-ordinated the voluntary action pavilion at the Eisteddfod for the third year running. The success of this event has prompted the organisation to run a similar venture at the Royal Welsh Show this year.

Lay assessors project

More than eighty people were recruited as part of this pilot project to take part in Welsh Office inspections of social services.

Cadw working party on redundant chapels

WCVA has facilitated a working party set up by CADW to review redundant historic chapels and to investigate the nature of any threat. A detailed report is expected in the summer.

A window on WCVA

New structure

It has been a busy year for WCVA. New projects coming on stream have meant that the staff has expanded to 33. To cope with the change a new management system and team structure has been introduced. Staff now work as part of seven teams: Directorate; communications; volunteering and social policy; community and local policy; economic and policy funding; research and information; finance and administration. Six team leaders and the director now form a management team.

Rhodri Morgan MP presents the Investors in People award to Graham Benfield organisation is now looking at the management standards identified in the Management Charter Initiative.

Investing in People

The last year has also seen a major achievement for WCVA in becoming the first voluntary organisation in Wales to achieve the prestigious Investors in People award. The

Chair is honoured

WCVA chair, Marjorie Dykins, was awarded an OBE for services to the community in Wales in the New Year's Honours list. She has worked for many years in the voluntary sector, including working with the Pre-School Playgroups Association and becoming a founder member of the Association of Voluntary Organisations in Wrexham. She has been involved with WCVA for more than a decade, and has chaired the organisation for the past three years.

Buildings

WCVA's headquarters at Llys Ifor, Caerphilly, was refurbished and extended with a view to developing the building as a national centre for voluntary organisations. British Red Cross, Motor Neurone Disease Association, Disability Wales and Cystic Fibrosis Trust have offices at the Centre.

The building extension was part financed by a grant of £130,000 from the European Regional Development Fund. There was also trust funding from the Tudor Trust - £45,000; Lankelly Foundation - £20,000 and the Esme Fairbairn Trust - £10,000.

Looking outwards

This year WCVA has been looking closely at how members and decision-makers see us, and how we can further improve our communication with them.

Cardiff Business School was commissioned to produce two reports - one based on interviews with members as part of focus groups held in South and North Wales, and the other based on in-depth interviews with a cross-section of decision-makers.

The reports reflected very positively on the organisation. It was regarded as reliable, authoritative, and well-placed to act as a representative of the voluntary sector. Network Wales magazine and the specialist advice offered by WCVA were highly valued.

In response to the reports, WCVA has stepped up its communication with MPs and other influential decision-makers and is now sending them regular briefing papers on topics of importance to the voluntary sector.

Initiatives have also been taken to improve communication with the business sector. WCVA has worked in collaboration with Business in the Community and six leading companies in Wales on a project called Keeping good company, which has drawn up guidelines for a working relationship between voluntary organisations and community-based voluntary organisations.

WCVA also took steps to review its corporate identity to reflect the modern-day organisation that it has become, representing the full range of voluntary organisations. WCVA will be reviewing all of its publications and introducing the fresh image as the year progresses.

Cyngor Gweithredu Gwirfoddol

Cymru yw llais y sector

gwirfoddol yng Nghymru.

Mae'n cynrychioli ac yn
ymgyrchu ar ran mudiadau gwirfoddol a gwirfoddolwyr, gan gynnwys ei aelodau.

Mae CGGC yn arwain y sector trwy:

- Ddarparu cyngor, gwybodaeth a hyfforddiant;
- dwyn pwysau ar y rhai sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau ar bob lefel;
- diogelu ac ychwanegu at yr adnoddau sydd ar gael ar gyfer y sector;
- ymateb yn gadarnhaol i her newydd.

Mae CGGC yn elusen annibynnol. Erbyn hyn mae ganddo dros 500 o aelodau yn holl sbectrwm grwpiau gwirfoddol a chymunedol - gan gynnwys gofal cymdeithasol ac iechyd, addysg ac ieuengtid, yr amgylchedd, y celfyddydau a diwylliant a chwareeon.

Mae'r cynnydd yn nifer yr aelodau yn dyst i'r rôl ganolog mae'n ei chwarae wrth gynrychioli ac ymgyrchu ar ran y sector gwirfoddol a dangos arweiniad wrth helpu mudiadau i reoli newid.

Mae gan CGGC 33 o staff yn ei bencadlys yng Nghaerffili ac mewn swyddfeydd yn Llandudno a'r Trallwng.

Cyngor Gweithredu Gwirfoddol Cymru

Yn cefnogi elusennau, gwirfoddolwyr a chymunedau

Aelodaeth

Cyngor Gweithredu Gwirfoddol Cymru yw'r corff cyffredinol ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol, gwirfoddoli ac elusennau yng Nghymru.

Ar adeg pan fo cymaint o newidiadau yn digwydd yn y sector, gall ymuno â CGGC helpu mudiadau gwirfoddol a'r rhai hynny sy'n gweithio gyda hwy i sicrhau eu bod yn gwybod beth sy'n digwydd.

Ar lefel ymarferol mae gennym dimau o arbenigwyr sy'n galu darparu gwybodaeth, cyngor a hyfforddiant ar amreliad eang o faterion sy'n uniongyrchol berthnasol i gymdeithasau yn y sector.

Mae ein tim ariannu'n cynnig cyngor cynhwysfawr ynglŷn ag arian sydd ar gael yn y DG ac yn Ewrop.

Trwy gyfres o daflenni gwybodaeth, cylchlythyrau a'n gwasanaeth ymwybyddiaeth gyfredol, mae'n swydddogion polisi a datblygiad yn sicrhau bod aelodau'n ymwybodol o'r newidiadau diweddaraf mewn deddfwriaeth sy'n effeithio ar y sector gwirfoddol.

Mae aelodau hefyd yn derbyn copi rhad ac am ddim o Rhwydwaith Cymru, y prif gylchgrawn misol ar gyfer y sector yng Nghymru. Maent hefyd yn gymwys i ostyngiadau ym mhris sesiynau hyfforddi a chyhoeddiadau newydd.

Yn ychwanegol at hyn, mae CGGC yn gweithio'n ddiwyd ar lefel strategol - yn hyrwyddo gwirfoddoli, materion gwledig a pholisiau dwyieithog, a hefyd yn gweithio er mwyn sefydlu cysylltiadau gydag awdurdodau lleol, awdurdodau iechyd a'r sector busnes.

Os nad ydych yn aelod ac os hoffech ymuno, byddem yn falch o anfon pecyn gwybodaeth atoch.

Mae aelodaeth lawn yn agored i fudiadau gwirfoddol cenedlaethol, rhanbarthol a chyffredinol ac unrhyw fudiad gwirfoddol nad yw'n cael ei gynrychioli ar y lefelau hyn.

Bob blwyddyn bydd yr aelodau llawn yn ethol pwylgor gwaith a fydd yn llywio'r gymdeithas.

Mae aelodaeth gysylltiol yn agored i fudiadau lleol, canghellon o fudiadau gwirfoddol cenedlaethol, asiantaethau statudol a phreifat ac unigolion.

Am ragor o fanylion a phecyn gwybodaeth cysylltwch a Wendy Gilbert ym mhrrif swyddfa CGGC yn Llys Ifor, Heol Crescent, Caerffili CF83 1XL.

Adroddiad y cyfarwyddwr

Mae'r flwyddyn a gwmpesir gan yr adroddiad hwn wedi gweld diwedd un oes a dechrau oes newydd, gan fod swyddogaethau a strwythurau'r llywodraeth wedi profi newidiadau mawr iawn.

Yn ystod y cyfnod hwn o newid, mae nifer o sefydliadau wedi dioddef adleoliad a phryder mawr, gan fod penderfyniadau sy'n effeithio ar eu dyfodol wedi bod yn hwyr neu wedi'u gohiri. Mae bodoli ynddo'i hun wedi bod yn flaenorïaeth fawr, ac mae llawer o waith ar ôl i sicrhau bod gwaith elusennau yn ddiogel ac yn cael ei hyrwyddo o fewn y drefn newydd.

Fodd bynnag, bellach ceir rhai arwyddion bod perthynas, eitemau ac adnoddau newydd yn dechrau ymddangos.

Efallai y bydd newidiadau mewn ariannu o Ewrop, cyhoeddi'r Papur Gwyn Gwledig, llif cynyddol arian y Loteri, a'r fenter wifreddoli Gwneud Gwahaniaeth, yn creu rhai cyfleoedd ar gyfer hyrwyddo gweithredu gwirfoddol, gwirfoddoli a datblygiad cymunedol.

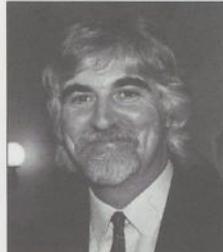

Bydd manteisio ar gyfleoedd o'r fath yn gofyn i'r sector gwirfoddol ymateb gyda mentrau o safon sy'n greadigol ac atebol yn arbenning o ran y mentrau gwirth-dlodi ac Agenda 21. Bydd hefyd yn gofyn am gymorth effeithiol ar lefel leol a chenedlaethol.

Ar lefel leol, bydd arolwg o'r gwasanaethau cymorth gwirfoddol canolradd lleol, a gyhoeddwyd ym mis Ionawr, yn arwain at swyddogaeth newydd i CGGC fel sianel ariannu, ac ar gyfer ail-adleiladu gwasanaethau cymorth gwirfoddol lleol ym mhob ardal awdurdod unedol. Ar lefel genedlaethol, bydd CGGC yn parhau i ddarparu a gwella ei arweinyddiaeth sefydlog a strategol fel llais clir a pharchus y sector yng Nghymru, a bydd yn arolygu ei weithgareddau ei hun wrth edrych tuag at y mileniwm.

Ni fyddai gwaith CGGC yn bosibl heb gymorth ei aelodau gwirfoddol sy'n prysur ehangu, y rhai sy'n rhoi yn hael o'u hamser i'w weithgareddau, a'r nifer o ymddiriedolaethau ac asiantaethau'r llywodraeth, yn arbennig y Swyddfa Gymreig a Bwrdd Elusennau'r Loteri Cenedlaethol, sydd wedi rhoi cefnogaeth ariannol yn ystod y flwyddyn.

Graham Benfield

Graham Benfield

Rhagair y cadeirydd

Mae CGGC yn llais ar gyfer y sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru ar faterion o ddiddordeb cyffredinol ac yn cynrychioli'r diddordebau hynny i'r llywodraeth, pobl eraill sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau, ac yn wir i'r gymdeithas yn ei chyfarwydd.

Gyda tua 22,000 o sefydliadau gwirfoddol yng Nghymru, gallai hyn fod yn dasg frawychus.

Mae ymagwedd CGGC wedi'i seilio'n gadarn ar weithio gydag eraill, ac rydym yn gyson yn ceisio cryfhau rhwydweithiau presennol neu sefydlu rhwydweithiau newydd o fewn y sector, a datblygu perthynas gryfach a mwy effeithiol gydag eraill sydd tu allan i'r sector.

Eleni, rydym wedi cymryd camau tuag at gynyddu nifer ein haelodau a gwella'r cyfathrebu gydan hwy. Mae CGGC yn ymrwymedig i ymgynghori'n eang, a choethwyd ac ailddrafftiwyd Manifesto'r sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru er engraifft yn dilyn dadl a sylwadau helaeth yn ystod y flwyddyn.

Gan edrych y tu allan i'r sector, rydym wedi meithrin cysylltiadau cryfach gyda phobl sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau ar bob lefel ac rydym wedi datblygu perthynas Iwyddiannus gydag AS o bob plaid a chyda'r gymuned fusnes. Rydym wedi edrych y tu hwnt i ffiniau traddodiadol gan wneud cysylltiadau gyda grwpiau yn Nwyrain Ewrop ac asiantaethau ym Mrwsel ac Iwerddon. Hefyd rydym wedi defnyddio'r cyfrngau fel offeryn effeithiol i godi ymwybyddiaeth ynglŷn â materion sy'n wynnebu mudiadau gwirfoddol a gwirfoddolwyr heddiw.

Bu'n flwyddyn anodd i nifer a oedd yn ymwrneud â'r sector gyda'r ansicrywydd a grëwyd drwy ad-drefnu'r llywodraeth leol. Mae'n rhaid i ni nawr edrych i'r dyfodol. Mae CGGC yn edrych ymlaen at weithio gyda'r Cymdeithas Llywodraeth Leol Cymru newydd ac i ddatblygu cysylltiadau gydag awdurdodau ieichyd newydd. Hoffwn ddiolch i bawb sydd wedi gweithio a chydweithredu gyda ni eleni a hoffwn ddiolch o galon i'r cyd aelodau gweithredol a'r staff am eu cyfraniadau.

Marjorie Dykins.

Golwg sydyn ar rai o'r datblygiadau arwyddocaol

Mae llawer lawn o bethau'n newid y dyddiau hyn ac mae cyflymder y newid wedi effeithio ar bron bob un ohonom. Mae CGGC wedi bod yn gweithio ar ran mudiadau gwirfoddol gan wneud yn siwr bod eu llais yn cael ei glywed a'u buddiannau'n cael eu cynrychioli ar bob lefel.

Trwy weithio mewn partneriaeth ag eraill, mae'r sefydliad wedi hwyluso ymgyrchoedd a fydd o fudd i grwpiau gwirfoddol a chymunedol trwy Gymru gyfan.

Dyma gofnod byr iawn o rai o lwyddiannau CGGC yn ystod y 12 mis o Ebrill 95 hyd Fawrth 96:

- Cynhyrchwyd manifesto ar gyfer y sector gwirfoddol a'i ddosbarthu'n helaeth.

Arwain y ffordd i'r dyfodol Tua'r Mileniwm

Mae gan CGGC nifer o brosiectau ar y gweill ar gyfer y flwyddyn ariannol gyfredol. Mae llawer yn adeiladu ar waith sydd wedi ei ddechrau yn barod yn 1995, ac mae eraill yn torri tir newydd.

Ceir braslun isod o'r gwaith y mae'r staff yn ei wneud yn 1996/97 ond nid yw'n ddarlun llawn o holl gwmpas ac amrediad y prosiectau sydd ar y gweill.

- Prosiect ymchwil i'r cyfrangau sy'n ceisio dileu delwedd ystrydebol gwirfoddoli.
- Dau brosiect er mwyn gweld sut y gall gwirfoddoli fod o fudd i bobl hŷn a phobl iau.
- Mae grŵp llywio sy'n cynnwys cynrychiolwyr CGGC ac eraill yn llunio canllawiau arferion da ar gyfer gwirfoddolwyr sy'n cefnogi cynhalwyr.
- Ymchwil er mwyn gweld i ba raddau y mae gwirfoddolwyr yn defnyddio NVQs.
- Seminarau yng ngogledd a de Cymru er mwyn cyflwyno mudiadau gwirfoddol i Fuddsoddywyr mewn Pobl a'r Ymgyrch Siarter Rheolaeth.

Seneddol Ewropeaidd er mwyn iddynt godi materion y sector gwirfoddol ar lefel Gymreig a Phrydeinig.

- Bwriedir cael rhwydwaith cefnogol ar gyfer mudiadau sy'n bwriadu defnyddio canllaw CGGC i ddatblygu polisiau dwyieithog.
 - Mae prosiect peilot ar gyfer gwaith datblygu ymgrych yn erbyn tloidi yn cael ei sefydlu mewn tair ardal awdurdod unedol.

 - Bwriedir gweithio gyda swyddogion trwyddedu awdurdodau unedol er mwyn mynd i'r afael â rhai o'r materion sy'n ymwneud ag ymgyrchoedd twyllodrus sy'n honni eu bod yn codi arian at achosion da.

Y prif themâu ...
Gwawr newydd mewn llywodraeth leol

Mae ad-drefnu llywodraeth leol wedi bod yn achos pryder yng nghefn ein meddylliau ers nifer o flynyddoedd, ond fel yr oedd y misoedd yn mynd heibio daeth i'r amlwg fel y brif thema ar gyfer 1995/96.

Mae ad-drefnu'r awdurdodau iechyd yn bum awdurdod mawr wedi bod yn newid sylweddol arall.

Yn ychwanegol at hyn, gallai cynlluniau'r Swyddfa Gymreig i ddatganoli arian sy'n cael ei ddefnyddio er mwyn ariannu cyrff cyffredinol cenedlaethol ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol a rhai cynlluniau grantiau fod yn fygythiad pellach i nifer o grwpiau.

Yn ystod y cyfnod cyn y newidiadau bu CGGC yn gweithio'n gyson er mwyn sicrhau bod y mudiadau gwirfoddol yn barod ar eu cyfer.

Bu'n hyrwyddo'r arferion gwaith da a nodwyd yn Anel at amcanion cyffredin gydag awdurdodau lleol er mwyn eu perswadio bod angen cynnwys mudiadau gwirfoddol yn eu cynlluniau strategol.

Gwelwyd cynnydd dramatig yn y baich gwaith eleni gydag oes yr hen awdurdodau lleol yn dirwyn i ben, yr awdurdodau iechyd yn cael eu hadn-drefnu a chyfnod newydd yn gwawrio.

Rhybuddiodd CGGC grwpiau gwirfoddol o'r dechrau bod angen iddynt fwrw golwg ar y cynlluniau darparu gwasanaeth draftt ar gyfer eu hardaloedd eu hunain ac ymateb iddynt.

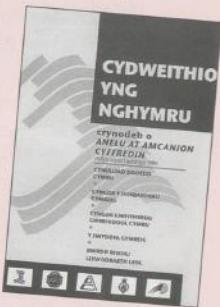

Edrychodd CGGC ar gynllunia darparu gwasanaeth pob un o'r 22 awdurdod unedol a thynnw sylw pob un o'r prif weithredwyr at ei bryderon. Roedd nifer o'r cynllunia darparu gwasanaeth heb unrhyw gyfeiriad o gwbl at y sector gwirfoddol gan ddangos eu diffyg ymwybyddiaeth o'r rôl hanfodol mudiadau gwirfoddol.

Roedd datganiadau cyffredinol am y sector gwirfodol mewn cynlluniau darparu gwasanaeth eraill ond dim byd sylweddol i'w cefnogi.

Yn gynnar yn 1996 cyhoeddodd CGGC - Ad-drefnu Ilywodraeth leol a'r sector gwirfodol - y cam olaf - gydag amserlen ar gyfer y cyfnod cyn yr ad-drefnu a rhestr wirio ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfodol.

Bu'n bwrw ymlaen hefyd ag ymarfer olrhain â chroestoriad o fudiadau gwirfoddol er mwyn cael cipddarlun o'r modd y mae ad-drefn llywodraeth leol yn effeithio arnynt.

Y prif ddarlun yn gynnwyr yn 1996, hyd at Ebrill, oedd un o anhrefn, oherwydd anwybodaeth ynglŷn ag ariannu.

Trodd yr ansicrywydd yn fwy a mwy o rwystredigaeth ac arswyd wrth i'r dyddiad a oedd wedi ei bennu ar gyfer yr ad-drefnu agosâu. Dair wythnos cyn y dyddiad trosglwyddo, roedd un o bob tri grŵp gwirfoddol mewn sampl o 30 heb wybod faint o arian y byddent yn ei gael.

Yr un oedd profiad Cymdeithas Genedlaethol y Canolfannau Cyngori, Gofal am yr Henoed a mudiadau gwirfoddol eraill.

Gor fodwyd mudiadau nad oedd ganddynt lawer o arian wrth gefn i ddiswyddo staff.

Trefnodd CGGC ymgrych arbennig yn y wasg yn annog awdurdodau lleol i:

- Gytuno ar arian trosiannol i grwpiau gwirfoddol hyd nes y gallai'r awdurdodau unedol gael eu tai i drefn;
- cytuno ar drefniadau ariannu ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol y mae eu gwaith yn croesi ffiniau awdurdodau lleol;
- sefydlu trefniadau ymgynghori priodol gyda mudiadau gwirfoddol er mwyn sicrhau na fydd yr un argyfwng yn digwydd y flwyddyn ganlynol.

Mae canlyniad ad-drefnu llywodraeth leol yn dal i gael ei arolygu, ond mae rhwymaint o arwyddion bod cysylltiadau'n cael eu hailadeiladu.

Mae rhai awdurdodau wedi ymateb trwy fabwysiadu'r arferion da a amlinellwyd yn Anelu at amcanion cyffredin. Mae'r hadau'n cael eu hau er mwyn datblygu perthynas aeddfed lle bydd y sector gwirfoddol yn cael ei gydnabod fel un sydd â ran allweddol i'w chwarae yn y gymdeithas ac y byddir yn ymgynghori ag ef mewn modd ystyrlon ynglŷn â materion strategol.

Mae CGGC hefyd yn dal i arolygu cynlluniau'r Swyddfa Gymreig i ddatganoli arian y Llywodraeth i awdurdodau lleol er mwyn mesur pa effaith y bydd yn ei gael ar gyrrif cyffredinol cenedlaethol ac ar weinyddu grantiau.

Y prif themâu ...

Y loteri ar ôl blwyddyn

Mae CGGC wedi dal i gadw llygad barcud ar effaith y Loteri Cenedlaethol ar y sector gwirfoddol.

Yn 1995/96 comisiynwyd y Polau Piniwn Cenedlaethol, trwy NCVO, i wneud gwaith ymchwil er mwyn canfod faint o arian yr oedd unigolion yn ei roi tuag at achosion da ar ôl i'r Loteri Cenedlaethol gael ei chyflwyno. Roedd yr ymchwil hefyd yn edrych ar farn pobl ynglŷn â'r loteri er mwyn gweld sut yr oedd y swm yr oeddent hwy'n ei feddwl oedd yn cael ei roi tuag at achosion da'n cyfateb i'r hyn a oedd mewn gwirionedd yn cyrraedd coffrau'r sector gwirfoddol.

Roedd y canlyniadau'n dangos gostyngiad sylweddol mewn rhoddion tuag at achosion da ar ôl cyflwyno'r loteri. O'r unigolion a gyfwelwyd, roedd nifer y rhai a oedd yn dweud eu bod yn dal i roi arian tuag at achosion da odeutu bymtheg y cant yn llai, ac roedd y rhai hynny a oedd yn dal i gyfrannu'n rhoi llai. Roedd rafflau tuag at elusennau a chasgliadau ar y stryd wedi dioddef yn enbyd.

Mae CGGC yn amcangyfrif bod elusennau yng Nghymru wedi colli tua £15 milïwn; disgwyli'r bydd cyfraniadau gan Fwrdd Elusennau'r Loteri Cenedlaethol yn cyfateb i hyn. Ond nid yw elusennau hynny sydd wedi colli incwm a fydd, o anghenraig, yn derbyn grantiau.

Hyrwyddwyd y loteri'n gyson fel ffordd o ddarparu arian newydd i achosion da ond yn sicr nid felly y bu.

Yn ogystal â chomisiynu ei ymchwil ei hun, mae CGGC yn cynrychioli grwpiau gwirfoddol Cymreig ar y pwylgor llywio ar gyfer ymchwil ariennir gan y Swyddfa Gartref.

Mae'r ymchwil hon yn cael ei gwneud dros gyfnod o ddwy flynedd a bydd yn canolbwytio ar incwm i elusennau dros gyfnod hwy: Dair blynedd cyn cyflwyno'r loteri a thair blynedd ar ôl ei chyflwyno.

Bydd y prosiect yn casglu tystiolaeth yn uniongyrchol gan elusennau ac yn edrych yn fanwl ar sampl o fudiadau elusennol mwy, yn ogystal â sampl gynrychioladol o filoedd o fudiadau llai.

Thousands could be left out in the cold in local changeover

Bleak future for voluntary sector

In Focus
By reporter CHRIS

VOLUNTARY groups who play a vital role in helping people with disabilities and those in poverty could be left out in the cold in the coming weeks. The Greater London Council looks at the problems.

Thousands could go and thousands more who rely on the voluntary sector could be left out.

It is the worrying scenario facing West Wales as it faces a new authority boundaries now only a few days away, there is growing concern over many organisations who have not been told whether they will be funded for the new financial year.

Mr Palmer said voluntary management committees were having to wrestle with some very tough decisions.

"Many are calling crisis meetings with staff and volunteers. Transition funding will help to stem the tide that is sweeping through our groups," he said.

The big fear is that some organisations will simply not survive because they do not have big enough reserves or until authorities firm decisions on funding.

Volunteer groups in dark over funding

Reorganisation threatens voluntary groups' funds

UNITARY authorities risk the collapse of hundreds of voluntary organisations in a funding crisis brought about by local government reorganisation. charities will be covered by the Wales Council for Voluntary Action (WCVA), the umbrella body for voluntary organisations, is covering all unitary authorities to avoid six-monthly payments to voluntary groups until the authorities can agree longer term arrangements.

If they fail to move quickly, voluntary services on which many people depend, could fold because they have little or no reserves.

Wales office Mike Palmer, who is monitoring the situation closely, said: "In Wales we are absolutely a lot of voluntary organisations collapsed.

What happened in London, in Wales we are

Mae nifer o brosiectau haeddiannol ledled Cymru wedi derbyn arian gan y Loteri. Ond er hyn nid yw'r Loteri wedi darparu arian newydd fel addewidwyd, a chredir bod elusennau llai yn dioddef, gyda rafflau a chasgliadau stryd yn arbennig yn dioddef.

Mae CGGC hefyd wedi rhoi tystiolaeth i ymchwiliad loteri'r Pwyllgor Treftadaeth Genedlaethol.

Dadleuodd CGGC yn ei gyflwyniad:

- Y dylai Cymru gael mwy o lais yn y modd y dosberthir yr arian gan y byrddau.
- Y dylid cael ffyrdd mwy hyblyg o ariannu prosiectau loteri trwy waddolion er mwyn i brosiectau gael sicrwydd o arian am dymor hir, yn hytrach na dibynnu ar grantiau unwaith ac am byth.
- Y dylid gostwng y dreth loteri o ddeuddeg ceiniog y bunt - yr uchaf yn Ewrop - a dosbarthu'r arian ychwanegol i achosion da.
- Y dylid sefydlu fforwm cyd-drefn croesi er mwyn delio â cheisiadau am grantiau sy'n croesi ffiniau.
- Y dylai pob bwrrd loteri yng Nghymru fod yn atebol yng Nghymru.

Y prif themâu ... Ewrop a'r Dwyrain

- 600 o ymholiadau wedi eu hystyried
- 70 o sesiynau cynghori wedi eu cynnal
- 9 ymgrych hyfforddiant ynglŷn ag Ewrop gan CGGC
- 20 gweithdy/cyflwyniad i fudiadau eraill

Bu'n flwyddyn lwyddiannus iawn o safbwyt ennill grantiau Ewropeaidd ar gyfer y sector. Dechreuwyd y rhagleni ariannu ar gyfer Cymru wledig (amcan 5b) ac ar gyfer De Cymru (amcan 2) o'r diwedd, bron flwyddyn yn hwyr.

O ganlyniad gwelwyd cynnydd aruthrol yn yr adnoddau a ddaeth i mewn i'r sector, tua £14 miliwn - o'i gymharu â £3.5 miliwn y flwyddyn flaenorol. Mae 150 o fudiadau wedi elwa o'r grantiau.

Sefydloedd CGGC hefyd sianel i'r Gronfa Gymdeithasol Ewropeaidd ar gyfer ymgeiswyr o'r sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru. Rhoddwyd grantiau i dros 40 o brosiectau a'r cyfan yn werth mwy na £2 filiwn. Roedd dros hanner y prosiectau a gefnogwyd yn rhai a oedd yn ymgeisio am y tro cyntaf.

Yn ychwanegol at y gefnogaeth ymarferol i rai a oedd yn gwneud cais am grant, mae CGGC wedi bod yn ddylanwadol wrth gynnllunio rhagleni ei mwyn ei gwneud yn haws i'r sector gwirfoddol gael gafael ar arian.

Rydym hefyd wedi ceisio dylanwadu ar yr oedi a geir cyn cymeradwyo a thalu arian Ewropeaidd. Amcangyfrifodd CGGC bod yr anawsterau hyn wedi arwain at golli 355 o leoliadau hyfforddi a diswyddo tri pherson ar un rhaglen yn unig.

Cynorthwyodd CGGC yr Ymddiriedolaeth Genedlaethol i sicrhau £190,000 o gyllid Ewropeaidd dan y grantiau amgylcheddol newydd er mwyn sefydlu prosiect hyfforddi mewn cadwraeth amgylcheddol a choedwigiaeth. Darparwyd lle ar gyfer 70 o bobl ddiwaith ar stâd Colby Lodge ger Dinbych-y-Pysgod; stâd ym Mhenfro a stâd Dolaucothi ger Llanbedr-Pont-Steffan. Daeth bron hanner o'r rhai dan hyfforddiant o hyd i waith wedi iddynt gwblhau'r rhaglen.

Cysylltiadau â'r Dwyrain

Mae CGGC wedi bod yn lledaenu ei orwelion ac yn edrych ar ffyrrd o ffurffio cysylltiadau â'r sector gwirfoddol sy'n datblygu yng Nghanolbarth a Dwyrain Ewrop.

Mae cysylltiadau wedi eu ffurffio erbyn hyn â'r sector gwirfoddol yn Belarus a chyfleoedd i gydweithio a chyfniewid syniadau wedi eu creu rhwng Belarus a Chymru.

Derbyniodd PPA Cymru grant o £424,000 dros dair blynedd gan y Loteri. Bydd yr arian yn cyllido prosiect gofal dydd cynhwysfawr yn Gibbonsdown, Y Barri a fydd yn cynwys darpriaeth gofal dydd, gofal ar ôl ysgol, mentrau cyswilt i'r gymuned a datblygiad gofal plant.

Cenhadaeth CGGC ...

Darparu cyngor, gwybodaeth a hyfforddiant

Cyngor

Bu'n staff yn delio â 2,525 o geisiadau am gyngor a gwybodaeth yn ystod y flwyddyn - 1,000 o ymholabau yn fwy na'r disgwyl. Cynigiwyd cyngor ariannol, cyfreithiol a chyfansoddiadol ynghyd â chyngor ynglŷn â materion personel.

Gwybodaeth

Gwelwyd cynnydd eleni yn nifer y tanysgrifwyr i wasanaeth ymwybyddiaeth gyfredol CGGC, gwasanaeth sy'n pwysa mesur datblygiadau newydd sy'n effeithio ar y sector yn wythnosol.

Mae cylchrediad Rhwydwaith Cymru - cylchgrawn misol blaenllaw'r sector - hefyd wedi cynyddu wrth i nifer yr aelodau gynyddu.

Cynhyrchwyd taflenni gwybodaeth a phapurau cyfarwyddyd ar ad-drefnu'r awdurdodau iechyd, ad-drefnu llywodraeth leol, cysylltiadau ar gyfer yr awdurdodau lleol newydd, y cynllun datblygu strategol ac ymddiriedolaethau sydd wedi eu lleoli yng Nghymru ynghyd â chefnogaeth gan awdurdodau lleol i'r sector gwirfoddol.

Prif gyhoeddad y flwyddyn oedd Llawlyfr Cyllido Cymru 95/96 a werthodd yn dda iawn ar ôl ei lansio ym mis Medi, ac sy'n agos iawn at gyraedd ei darged gwerthiant ar gyfer y flwyddyn os nad rhagori arno.

- Deliodd CGGC â 2,500 o geisiadau am gyngor a gwybodaeth.
- Darparwyd deg ar hugain o ddiwrnodau hyfforddi.
- Treuliwyd 22 diwrnod yn darparu hyfforddiant mewnol a oedd wedi ei deilwrio ar gyfer mudiadau.
- Nododd 80 y cant o'r rhai a hyfforddwyd fod yr hyfforddiant yn fodol iawn.

Hyfforddiant

Roedd y gweithgareddau hyfforddi a ddarparwyd gan staff CGGC yn amrywio o hyfforddiant personel i gyfle cyfartal, defnyddio'r cyfrangau, iechyd a diogelwch a rheoli datblygiad.

Yn ychwanegol at hyn, mae'r mudiadau wedi mabwysiadu rôl strategol a galluogol.

Ers Hydref 1995, bu'n hwyluso prosiect trefnu hyfforddiant yn y sector gwirfoddol. Mae hwn yn dwyn ynghyd groestoriad cynrychioladol o'r sector ac yn ceisio dadansoddi anghenion hyfforddiant a datblygiad y sector a sicrhau eu bod yn cael eu diwallu.

Ein cenhadaeth ...

Ymgrychu a lobio

Mae CGGC yn cael ei ystyried fel llais y sector gwirfoddol yng Nghymru. Mae ymgrychu a dwyn pwysau ar ran mudiadau gwirfoddol ar y rhai sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau ar lefel Gymreig a Phrydeinig sy'n ymwned â gwirfoddoli yn rhan hanfodol o'i waith.

Yn ystod y flwyddyn:

- Buom yn dwyn pwysau er mwyn gwrthdroi penderfyniad a fyddai wedi golygu na fyddai'r sector gwirfoddol yn cael ei glynrychioli ar Grŵp Technegol RECHAR sy'n goruchwyllo arian Ewropeaidd - gan ennill y dydd.
- Dwyn pwysau er mwyn sicrhau bod canllawiau'r Swyddfa Gymreig ar gyfer y Cyllun Datblygiad Strategol yn cynnwys cymal sy'n ei gwneud yn ofynnol i awdurdodau lleol wario 15 y cant o'u dyraniad ar broiectau cymunedol gwirfoddol - gan ennill y dydd.
- Dwyn pwysau gydag eraill er mwyn diddymu cynlluniau i adolygu rheolau budd-daliadau a fyddai wedi effeithio ar bobl ddi-waith ar gyrsiau hyfforddi'r sector gwirfoddol sy'n cael eu hariannu gan y Gronfa Gymdeithasol Ewropeaidd (ESF).
- Cyflwyno sylwadau o blaid gwirfoddoli i'r Llywodraeth mewn perthynas â'r rheoliadau ar gyfer y lwfans newydd ar gyfer y rhai sy'n chwilio am waith - gan ennill rhai manteision.

Mae Gweithdy Cymunedol Gabalfa nawr wedi ei hen sefydlu ond y mae wedi profi problemau ariannol tra'n aros i gyllid ESF gael ei brosesu. Dywedodd Barry Shiers, rheolwr y gweithdy: "Mae'n anhygoel y disgwyli'r broiectau weithio'n effeithiol a phroffesiynol tra'n aros chwech mis neu ragor i fewn i'r flwyddyn ariannol cyn derbyn 50 y cant o'r grant."

*Gobeithiaf y bydd CGGC yn parhau i ymgrychu ar ran elusennau llai ledled Cymru er mwyn gwella ac addysgu'r system ynglŷn ag anghenion mudiadau bach.

Ein Cenhadaeth ...

Ymateb yn gadarnhaol i her

Ymgyrch cefn gwlad

Mae CGGC wedi buddsoddi mewn prosiect tair blynedd gwerth £100,000 i gefnogi ymgyrchoedd cymunedol mewn ardal oedd gwledig.

Yn ystod y flwyddyn ddiwethaf, mae CGGC wedi sefydlu'r Rhwydwaith Cefn Gwlad fel grŵp cefnogol ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol, ac mae wedi bod yn gwneud gwaith ymchwil er mwyn gweld beth yw eu prif bryderon a'u diddordebau.

Cynhalwyd cynhadledd yn Llandrindod ar gyfer cynrychiolwyr grwpiau gwirfoddol a chymunedol gyda'r bwriad o ddwyn ynghyd syniadau ynglŷn â'r hyn a ddylai gael ei gynnwys mewn Papur Gwyn ar gyfer cefn gwlad Cymru.

Ym mis Chwefror, cynhalwyd cynhadledd yn Llandrindod ar y cyd â Grŵp Ymgynghorol Cludiant Cymunedol Cymru. Canlyniad y gynhadledd oedd penderfyniad i sefydlu cymdeithas cludiant cymunedol genedlaethol ar gyfer Cymru.

Prosiect gwirth-dlodi

Lwyddodd CGGC i sefydlu prosiect gwirth-dlodi yn dilyn cais llwyddiannus i Fwrdd Elusennau'r Loteri Cenedlaethol.

Ei nod yw datblygu cysylltiadau rhwng grwpiau cymunedol ac awdurdodau lleol er mwyn sicrhau bod grwpiau cymunedol yn dod yn bartneriaid llawn mewn strategaethau gwirth-dlodi.

Bydd swyddog datblygu gwirth-dlodi CGGC yn cysylltu â'r Fforwm Cenedlaethol Llywodraeth Leol yn erbyn Tlodi ac ag awdurdodau lleol. Bydd tair ardal beilot yn cael eu dewis er mwyn bwrw ymlaen â'r prosiect.

Mae'r swyddog datblygu cymunedol yn gweithio gyda chymdeithasau cefnogol ar gyfer grwpiau cymunedol ac yn edrych ar anghenion hyfforddi.

Rhoddwyd grant o £450,000 a ilog i Gymdeithas Byd Natur Dyfed gan Gronfa Gwirfoddoli yng Nghymru i'w gynorthwyo i dalu treuliau gwirfoddolwyr ac offer adeg clirio olew y Sea Empress.

Yr iaith Gymraeg

Cwblhawyd rhan gyntaf prosiect yr iaith Gymraeg yn ystod y flwyddyn gyda 19 cymdeithas beilot yn datblygu polisiau dwyieithog. Mae panelau ymarfer da wedi eu sefydlu er mwyn helpu mudiadau i ddysgu o brofiad eraill.

Cynhyrchwyd canllawiau, O'n gwirfodd, ac mae tros 3,000 o fudiadau wedi bod yn derbyn cylchlythyr yn rheolaidd.

Sefydlwyd panel cyswllt sector gwirfoddol gyda Bwrdd yr iaith Gymraeg.

Mae CGGC wedi dechrau llunio ei gynllun ei hun ar gyfer yr iaith Gymraeg mewn ymateb i'r Ddeddf Iaith ac yn unol ag O'n gwirfodd.

Gwirfoddoli

Mae CGGC yn penodi dau weithiwr ychwanegol er mwyn helpu i hyrwyddo a datblygu nifer o'r ymgyrchoedd gwirfoddoli a ddechreuwyd eleni.

Arweiniodd Wythnos Wirfoddolwyr arbennig at gynnydd yn nifer yr ymholiadau a mwy o ymgyrchoedd ar gyfer y flwyddyn ganlynol.

Cynyddodd aelodaeth Fforwm Wirfoddoli Cymru i 200, a chynhalwyd cyfres o weithgareddau hyfforddi ar gyfer trefnwyr gwirfoddolwyr, yn ogystal â chynllunio ail gynhadledd flynyddol.

Cronfa Gwirfoddoli yng Nghymru ac Ymddiriedolaeth Esme Fairbairn

Cafwyd cynnydd o 19 y cant yn nifer y ceisiadau i Gronfa Gwirfoddoli yng Nghymru yn ystod y flwyddyn gyda chyfanswm o 110 o geisiadau'n cael eu gwneud. Gofynnwyd am fwy na miliwn o bunnoedd - gan gynyddu o £853,000 i £1,100,000.

Ymrwymwyd i gyfrannu tros £450,000 a gwnaethwyd benthyciad hefyd i Cymdeithas Byd Natur Dyfed er mwyn eu cynorthwyo i dalu treuliau gwirfoddolwyr a phrynu offer ar gyfer y gwaith o glirio ar ôl yr olew a gollwyd o'r Sea Empress.

Roedd gan bwylgor grantiau bychain Cymru Ymddiriedolaeth Elusennol Esme Fairbairn £30,000 i'w ddosbarthu y llynedd. Cyfarfu'r panel bedair gwaith yn ystod y flwyddyn, gan ystyried 141 o geisiadau a chynnig grant i 101 ohonynt. Roedd eu gwerth yn amrywio o £100 i £600, ac aeth 22 grant i ogledd Cymru a 15 i'r canolbarth.

Consortia hyfforddi

Cynhaliwyd pum deg a dau o gyrsiau ar gyfer consortiwm hyfforddi gogledd, canolbarth a gorllewin Cymru, ar bynciau a oedd yn cynnwys sgiliau pwylgor rheoli, cyllid, gweithio gyda gwirfoddolwyr a gweithio mewn cymdeithas ddwyieithog.

Hyrwyddo'r sector

Cyd-drefnodd CGGC y babell gweithredu gwirfoddol yn yr Eisteddfod yn llwyddiannus am y drydedd flwyddyn o'r bron. Mae llwyddiant y babell hon wedi ysgogi'r gymdeithas i wneud rhywbeth tebyg yn Sioe Frenhinol Cymru eleni.

Prosiect aseswyr lleyg

Recriwtiwyd dros bedwar ugain o bobl fel rhan o'r prosiect peilot hwn i gymryd rhan yn arolygon gwasanaethau cymdeithasol y Swyddfa Gymreig.

Gweithgor Cadw ar gapeli gweigion

Mae CGGC wedi hwyluso gweithgor a sefydlwyd gan CADW er mwyn adolygu capeli hanesyddol gweigion ac edrych ar natur unrhyw fygythiad. Disgwylir adroddiad manwl yn yr haf.

Golwg ar CGGC

Strwythur newydd

Mae CGGC wedi cael blwyddyn brysur. Mae prosiectau newydd yn dod i lif wedi golygu bod nifer y staff wedi cynyddu i 33. Cyflwynwyd system reoli a strwythur tim newydd er mwyn dyggymod â'r newid. Mae'r staff bellach yn gweithio fel rhan o saith tim: Y gyfarwyddiaeth; cyfathrebu; gwirfoddoli a pholisi cymdeithasol; y gymuned a pholisi lleol; yr economi a'r polisi ariannu; ymchwil a gwybodaeth; cyllid a gweinyddiaeth. Mae chwe arweinydd tim a'r cyfarwyddwr erbyn hyn yn ffurfio tim rheoli.

hennill yng Nghymru. Mae'r gymdeithas bellach yn edrych ar y safonau rheoli sydd wedi eu nodi yn y Fenter Siarter Rheoli.

Buddsoddi mewn Pobl

Mae'r flwyddyn ddiwethaf wedi bod yn flwyddyn bwysig i CGGC hefyd gan iddo ennill y wobr arbennig ar gyfer Buddsoddwyr mewn Pobl, y mudiad wrfoddol gyntaf i'w

Anrhydeddu'r cadeirydd

Cyflwynwyd yr OBE i gadeirydd CGGC, Marjorie Dykins, am wasanaethau i'r gymuned yng Nghymru yn rhestr Anrhydeddau'r Flwyddyn Newydd. Mae wedi bod yn gweithio yn y sector gwirfoddol am flynyddoedd lawer, gan weithio gyda'r Gymdeithas Meithrinfeidd Cyn-ysgol a bod yn un o aelodau cyntaf Cymdeithas y Cyrrf Gwirfoddol yn Wrecsam. Mae wedi bod yn ymneud â CGGC am ddegawd a rhagor a hi yw cadeirydd y gymdeithas ers tair blynedd.

Adeiladau

Adnewyddwyd pencadlys CGGC yn Llys Ifor, Caerffili a'i ymestyn gyda'r bwrriad o ddatblygu'r adeilad fel canolfan genedlaethol ar gyfer mudiadau gwirfoddol. Mae gan y Groes Goch Brydeinig, Cymdeithas Clefyd Niwrnau Motor, Anabledd Cymru ac Ymddiriedolaeth Fibrosis Systig swyddfeydd yn y ganolfan.

Arianwyd y gwaith o wneud yr estyniad i'r adeilad yn rhannol gan grant o £130,000 o Gronfa Datblygu Rhanbarthau Ewrop. Cafwyd arian gan ymddiriedolaethau hefyd - £45,000 gan Ymddiriedolaeth Tudor, £20,000 gan Sefydliad Lankelly a £10,000 gan Ymddiriedolaeth Esmei Fairbairn.

Edrych tuag allan

Eleni mae CGGC wedi bod yn ceisio gweld sut y mae aelodau a phobl sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau yn ein gweld, a sut y gallwn wella rhagor ar ein cyfathrebu.

Comisiynwyd Ysgol Fusnes Caerdydd i gynhyrchu dau adroddiad - y naill yn seiliedig ar gyfweliadau gydag aelodau fel rhan o grwpiau ffocws a gynhalwyd yn ne a gogledd Cymru, a'r llall yn seiliedig ar gyfweliadau manwl gyda chroestoriad o bobl sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau.

Roedd yr adroddiadau'n

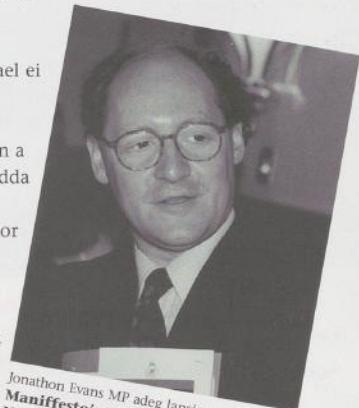

cynnwys darlun cadarnhaol iawn o'r mudiad. Roedd yn cael ei hystyried fel un ddibynadwy ac awdurdodol, ac fel un a oedd mewn sefyllfa dda i weithredol fel cynrychiolydd y sector gwirfoddol. Roedd canmol mawr i'r cylchgrawn

Rhwydwaith Cymru

a'r cyngor arbenigol

a gynigir gan

CGGC.

Mewn ymateb i'r adroddiad, mae CGGC wedi cynyddu ei gyfathrebu gydag Aelodau Seneddol a phobl dylanwadol eraill sy'n gwneud penderfyniadau ac erbyn hyn mae'n anfon papurau cyfarwyddo ar bynciau sydd o bwys i'r sector gwirfoddol atynt yn rheolaidd.

Mae camau wedi eu cymryd hefyd er mwyn cael gwell cyfathrebu â'r sector busnes. Mae CGGC wedi bod yn gweithio ar y cyd â Busnes yn y Gymuned a chwe chwmni blaenllaw yng Nghymru ar brosiect sy'n dwyn y teitl Cadw cwmni da, gan lunio canllawiau ar gyfer perthynas waith rhwng mudiadau gwirfoddol a'r rhai sydd wedi eu lleoli yn y gymuned.

Fei rhan o'r adroddiad aeth CGGC ati hefyd i adolygu ei hunaniaeth gorfforaethol er mwyn adlewyrchu'r mudiad fel y mae heddiw a chynrychioli amrediad llawn y mudiadau gwirfoddol. Bydd CGGC yn adolygu ei holl gyhoeddiant ac yn cyflwyno'r ddelwedd gyfoes fel y mae'r flwyddyn yn mynd rhagddi.
